Balloon Inflates 250 Mi. Up

Type Designed As Signal Reflector

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has a spectacular new entry in the space derby — a balloon as big as a 10-story building that inflates 250 miles above the earth.

The first space balloon launching Wednesday at Wallops Island, Va., was a smashing success. Not only did the balloon perform as planned, it startled the dickens out of hundreds of citizens all over the Eastern Seaboard.

Residents of Kingston and Hudson Valley areas reported observing myriad flashes of reflected sunlight in the sky, which puzzled them, because they could not make out what the object was.

The balloon, 100 feet in diameter, was the biggest object anyone has ever sent up into the fringes of space. But it weighed only 130 pounds.

It was not meant to go into orbit, and soon fell back into the sea. It was visible for 10 minutes. Later the National Aeronautics and Space Administration hopes to put some of these giant space travelers into orbit around the earth.

Sends Out Flashes

The balloon, fired at 5:40 p.m., caught the rays of the sun at the top of its flight. As it unfolded up there, its aluminized surface caught the light at different angles and sent forth myriad flashes of reflected sunlight.

Many who saw it thought it was a flare, surrounded by sparks.

The project was not announced in advance and nobody knew what it was.

Many Calls Received

Prof. Robert Brown, director of the Moonwatch station at New Haven, Conn., said it looked like "the craziest thing in the world."

Civil Defense officials checked in with their headquarters within minutes. Newspaper, police and radio station telephone switchboards were glutted with calls.

The balloon was sent up in a two-stage rocket with a thrust of 130,000 pounds.

The space agency said the whole huge balloon was folded into a container 26½ inches in diameter. The sphere was made of plastic and coated with silvery aluminum outside.

May Be Put in Orbit

After the balloon was released 250 miles up, air trapped inside it began to expand it. Then four pounds of water in two plastic bags was released inside the balloon. At that altitude the water expanded into vapor and completed the blowing up of the balloon.

NASA hopes to send these balloons into orbit 800 to 1,000 miles above the earth. They will be used as reflectors of radio signals.

Catholic School In Red Hook Is To Open in 1962

The Rev. John R. Carroll, MA, pastor, has made known to the parishioners of Sacred Heart Church, Barrytown and St. Christopher's, Red Hook, that he had received a letter of approval, dated October 19, from Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, to proceed with plans for a parochial school.

"The school will provide the ever increasing number of children in Red Hook and surrounding area with facilities for a Catholic school education," said Father Carroll.

The proposed new school will contain classrooms up to and including the eighth grade; all purpose room which can be used for parish functions; plus auxiliary facilities, will be erected on a 13 acre site at Benner Road and West Market Street, Red Hook. Plans include erection of a convent at the same location for the entire teaching staff of Dominican Nuns of Sparkill.

Father Carroll said, an architectural firm will be selected in the near future, in order that the school can be ready no later than September 1962. "The school when completely occupied will accommodate approximately 400 boys and girls. Present plans call for opening classes up to and including the fourth grade; one additional grade to be added each year.

Completed architectural plans are expected in the spring, at which time Father Carroll will present to the people more detail and architect's drawing of the proposed buildings.

White Resigns His Post

CHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Malcolm R. White, acquitted of a murder charge in the slaying of a union organizer, has resigned as president of the Chester Cable Corp.

At his trial, White pleaded self-defense in the slaying last Nov. 13 of Alfred E. Dugan, who was trying to organize the plant. On Tuesday an Orange County jury found White innocent in the shooting.

White, in announcing his resignation Wednesday, said he was turning over his post to E. S. Strang, formerly board chairman of the firm. White told newsmen he intended to take a long rest, and felt it best to resign so an active management could be assured. He added that he had held no stock interest in the company for some time.

Mexico Reports 100 Dead in Hurricane

MEXICAN CITY (AP) — The count of known dead neared 100 today in Mexico's flood-stricken states of Colima and Jalisco. Many more persons still were missing in one of the country's worst modern disasters.

Large sections of the two small western states bordering the Pacific still were isolated by floods in the wake of weekend torrential rains and a hurricane Monday.

Air rescue operations continued around the clock in an effort to reach hundreds of families driven from their homes by rain-swollen rivers that jumped their banks and poured through dozens of small villages.

The rivers knocked out communications and flooded roads in the stricken area, hindering the movement of military convoys carrying food, medicine and clothing.

The Pacific port of Manzanillo, which took the full force of the hurricane, reported 80 known fatalities. At least 100 residents were reported missing and 500 injured.

Full reports of casualties and damage could not be obtained because of the breakdown in communications. The President's office announced reports received by radio.

40 PC of Homes Gone

At least seven persons were dead and 15 missing in Cihautlan, 30 miles northwest of Manzanillo. Floods destroyed 40 per cent of the homes in the town of 5,000.

Four small Mexican freighters were reported sunk at Manzanillo There also was a report indicating the 800-ton freighter Sinaloa, which left Manzanillo Monday for Acapulco, had gone down at sea. The report said 12 crewmen were rescued but 17 still were missing.

Secret Ballot Is Asked by Union For Thruway Men

Council 50 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes have demanded a secret election whereby Thruway employes could vote for or against representation by the union.

At a recent meeting the Thruway Authority recognized the union as a bargaining agency for some workers on the super-highway, but refused to enter into a union-shop agreement. The two groups have agreed to meet again within the next three weeks. A spokesman for the Thruway Authority said the union's demands for a secret election "needs study."

According to the Authority, the union-shop proposal by Council 50 would deny Thruway employes rights granted them by state law and "the Authority lacks power to enter such a contract."

Council 50 claims a membership of 700 among Thruway employes. The Council had sought a union-shop contract under which all 850 toll collectors and

20 Reported Safe On Disabled Craft

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—The 20 persons, including a woman, aboard the British sailing vessel Crystal were reported all safe as the disabled 445-ton craft made port here today.

The 225-foot vessel asked assistance about noon Wednesday while 110 miles west of Key West. She reported a hole in the forward hold and said water was coming in faster than the pumps could handle it.

PSC Will Decide What Agency Razes Viaduct

The Washington Avenue Viaduct is presently under the jurisdiction of the New York State Public Service Commission and that commission will make a determination under the Railroad Law as to what agency will demolish the present structure and who will pay for it.

In an effort to clarify a statement made by a representative of the State Department of Public Works at the recent hearing before the Public Service Commission, when that representative said "this particular section was not yet on the state highway system since it had not been accepted by the Department of Public Works" Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson communicated with the State Department of Public Works.

Henry Ten Hagen, chief engineer for the department has informed Assemblyman Wilson that that statement was correct and explained the reason for that statement.

"No part of a state arterial route becomes a responsibility of this department until a contract is let for its construction," Chief Engineer Ten Hagen writes.

Ten Hagen points out that the structure is still under PSC jurisdiction.

What agency will demolish the present viaduct and who will pay, are both routine matters, Ten Hagen writes, in his statement that the PSC still has jurisdiction.

"People generally do not understand this situation and get a false impression that as soon as a project is set up by law that it immediately becomes the state's responsibility," Ten Hagen stated. After a construction contract is let a state arterial route becomes the responsibility of the State Department of Public Works.

"I can assure you that when the Public Service Commission acts favorably following the hearing, we will endeavor to originate a construction project," Ten Hagen informed Assemblyman Wilson.

Roads Planner Says Turn-Off Possible From Artery Route

There is sufficient space at the junction of Albany Avenue and Maiden Lane to develop a "turn-around" near the city's arterial route to permit easy access to the several business houses in the area.

That statement was made by Maynard A. Bebee, Director of the Bureau of Highway Planning, State Department of Public Works, following a "careful" investigation of the conditions which exist at the intersection.

Mayor Edwin F. Radel has contended the area is inadequate for that purpose.

At a meeting in Albany some time ago it was determined that a left turn within the traffic pattern would be "impractical" but a turn-about at Maiden Lane and Albany Avenue, just past the Buick salesrooms, could be worked out to permit traffic to make a left hand turn-about into Broadway.

Merchants in the Broadway-Albany Avenue area protested the existing arterial route pattern which provides no means for a left turn into Broadway shopping area from the arterial traffic circle. It was suggested that some means be made to permit traffic to reach the upper-Broadway area from the arterial pattern. Since it was then too late to make any changes in the arterial pattern, a suggestion was made that a left turn-about be permitted at Maiden Lane and Albany Avenue.

That plan was submitted to the state authorities with the result the state agreed to make a study of the proposed turn-about facilities at Maiden Lane and Albany Avenue to permit easier access to several area business houses.

Inadequate, Mayor

On October 9 Mayor Radel stated that in his opinion there was insufficient space and he called the proposed plan "inadequate."

Assemblyman Kennth L. Wilson, who has held several conferences with the State Department of Public Works in regard to the matter has received a letter from Director Bebee stating the plan is feasible from an engineers viewpoint.

Following inquiry by Assemblyman Wilson to the office of Director Bebee, an inspection of the area was had on October 8.

In a letter to Assemblyman Wilson, Bebee says:

Easy for 'U' Turn, He Says

"In reply to your letter of inquiry to my office when I was away last week, I made a careful investigation of the Maiden Lane-Albany Avenue intersection on October 8, and found that with a large size car it was quite easy to make a "U" turn from the west-bound center lane on Albany Avenue around the present pedestrian island at the Maiden Lane intersection even though two cars were parked in front of the automobile salesroom. I have taken sufficient measurements of the intersection to develop a traffic control and operating plan of the intersection when time permits and prior to the opening of the new facility."

Conference Set Nov. 4 to Study Route 9W Traffic

The mounting traffic problems on Route 9W between Saugerties and Kingston will be discussed Wednesday afternoon in Saugerties at a conference of state officials with Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson of Woodstock, and Supervisors Peter M. Williams and Alexander Banyo of Town of Ulster.

Assemblyman Wilson and Supervisor Williams will conduct a tour of the trouble spots along Route 9W through the newly populated areas in Barclay Heights, south of the Village of Saugerties.

State Men Coming

Representatives of the State Police, State Public Works Department, and Lloyd A. Maeder, director of the State Traffic Commission are expected to attend the special conference.

The survey is being made in answer to numerous petitions and requests by residents and organizations of the Barclay Heights area seeking relief of its traffic problems when entering and leaving Route 9W at various intersections along the route.

Requests for the establishment of 30-mile-per-hour speed zones through the area have been turned down by the State Traffic Commission.

Asks 4-Lane Road

Construction of a four-lane highway between Kingston and Saugerties as the only possible solution to the increasing traffic dilemma of Route 9W was proposed by Assemblyman Wilson a few weeks ago to Henry Ten Hagen, chief engineer of the State Public Works Department.

Wilson emphasized that the traffic problems between these two communities "are becoming more acute."

Calls 9W Antiquated

"The by-pass of Kingston, and connections with Route 28 and 209 will relieve this problem substantially insofar as the City of Kingston is concerned, but traffic egress from the Kingston IBM plant onto 9W is still going to be with us," Assemblyman Wilson asserted.

He described 9W between the two communities as an antiquated three-lane highway.

Assemblyman Wilson said today, he had not received a reply as yet from Ten Hagen, however the conference will bring out the necessity of some form of action in the matter.

New Tax System to Mean Smaller Week Deductions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New York State will get a smaller bite out of your weekly pay check, beginning Jan. 1. But at the end of 1960, the total take will be the same as this year.

The state income tax withheld from each pay check will be cut about one-fourth, because the withholding system will be on a 12-month basis.

When the state adopted withholding last April, one-fourth of the calendar year had passed. To collect a year's taxes in nine months, payments were increased by 25 per cent.

The state expects to collect 715 million dollars for the nine-months. It expects to collect the same amount from income taxes during the 12 months beginning Jan. 1.

Gov. Rockefeller has ruled out any tax cuts next year. He is hoping to put New York on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Tables showing the new deductions are being mailed to 500,000 employers.

An estimated five million wage-earners are paying state income taxes under the withholding plan.

Regardless of the new system, tax returns are due April 15, to show whether you owe more or should receive a refund.

Reduced Deductions Table

The following table shows samples of weekly deductions in various N. Y. State tax brackets under the 25 per cent cut effective Jan. 1:

Rocky Admits Chat Included Politics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller returned to a full schedule of state speechmaking here today after having a chat with President Eisenhower on politics.

Rockefeller, a potential candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, went to Washington Wednesday to report to the Republican President on civil defense planning.

Mum on Personal Stand

But he admitted to newsmen afterward that the discussion dealt in part with politics. He would not say whether his personal political plans were discussed.

There was speculation that Rockefeller might try to reassess his political standing at the White House.

Today, Rockefeller was to address the Governor's Council on Rehabilitation, a church anniversary dinner, and the installation ceremonies for Dr. Thomas H. Hamilton, new president of the State University.

Washington reporters tried several times Wednesday before Rockefeller finally acknowledged having discussed politics with Eisenhower.

At first, he said that he and the President did talk about matters other than civil defense.

Asked whether those matters included politics, Rockefeller smiled and replied:

Concedes Subject Discussed

"If two people get together who have worked together in government, that is a subject that could come up."

But after he left a group of reporters in the White House lobby and went outside before radio and television newsmen, he conceded that he and Eisenhower did discuss the political picture.

Earlier, he was asked whether he had informed Eisenhower he was ready to announce his candidacy for the GOP nmination. "No comment," Rockefeller answered with a smile.

He was asked why he had extended his agenda of out-of-state political appearances if he was not a presidential candidate.

Interested in Party

"I am the governor of a large state in the East which is strongly Republican," he replied, "and I am vitally interested in the future of the Republican Party."

A newsman asked him whether he felt the GOP would have greater vitality with himself as the presidential nominee than it would with some other candidate.

"By God," Rockefeller replied with a laugh, "that's a leading question."

As for the civil defense discussion, Rockefeller noted that at the Governors' Conference in Puerto Rico recently a resolution was passed calling for a large-scale meeting on civil defense. Those attending would include the President.

Rockefeller said no date or place was set Wednesday for such a conference.

Sullivan Woman Killed, Youth Is Injured in Crash

A 27-year-old Monticello woman was instantly killed and a 16-year-old Brooklyn youth was injured at 9:25 p. m. Wednesday when the car in which they were riding went out of control and overturned twice off Route 17 about one mile east of the Ferndale State Police substation.

Marie Galenas was pronounced dead at the scene. Coroner Dr. L. F. Grant, of Liberty, said the woman died of a fracture of the skull and broken neck.

State Police Corporal L. J. Vincent and Trooper R. E. Pinnow said Leonard Weinberg, of Brooklyn, was driving the vehicle east on Route 17 and soon after he passed a tractor-trailer Weinberg cut back into the traffic lane too sharp and the car went out of control and hit a soft shoulder.

Troopers said the vehicle swerved across the highway and overturned twice. The woman passenger was thrown from the car and pinned under it. Passing motorists assisted in freeing the body.

Weinberg was treated at the scene and later rushed to Loomis Hospital at Liberty. He suffered lacerations of the back and abrasions and contusions.

Murphy Gives Up Job As Aide to Herter

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The resignation of Robert D. Murphy as undersecretary of state has almost completed an unplanned shakeup in the State Department high command. It has been under way since Christian A. Herter took control last spring.

Two further developments are in prospect: a successor must be found to fill Murphy's key job. And Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen, veteran expert on the Soviet Union next week will assume a new post as Herter's special adviser on Soviet affairs.

The changes involving five policy-making positions could have important impact on the development of U.S. foreign policy toward various parts of the world, but Herter's associates say they were not made with any policy purpose in view.

Murphy's resignation was announced by the White House Wednesday night. Murphy, 65, wrote President Eisenhower that he was resigning effective Dec. 3 for personal reasons. The President accepted the resignation "with deep regret, but with complete understanding."

Later Murphy told reporters, "It was an awfully tough decision to make." He said he wanted greater financial security and more time with his family than his State Department duties had permitted. He will take a job in private industry.

Murphy had turned down the job of ambassador to West Germany. The post will become vacant soon with the retirement of Ambassador David Bruce.

Herter became secretary last April 22, succeeding the late John Foster Dulles.

Speed-Up Denied by High Court

Union Will File Appeal on Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refuses to order the United Steelworkers to speed up their appeal of a Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction that would halt the 107-day steel strike.

The government made a strong plea to the court Wednesday to tell the union to get going on the appeal by noon today. Without comment, the court denied the Justice Department request.

Brief Due Monday

That leaves the union until Monday to appeal the ruling of a Philadelphia appeals court that upheld the injunction.

But union lawyer Arthur J. Goldberg said he expected to file the formal appeal notice with the Supreme Court Friday and present a complete brief for the union case by Monday.

This means the court probably won't be ready to rule until the middle of next week.

The strike will go on at least until then unless something comes of new full-scale negotiations that resume today at Pittsburgh between the union and the big steel companies.

Will Summon Both

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said it was glad to hear that negotiations would resume. But it served notice on both sides that if nothing happened by Monday it would call them to Washington for a joint bargaining conference.

The involved court action began nine days ago when President Eisenhower asked his government lawyers to get a Taft-Hartley injunction in Pittsburgh.

The court order would halt the strike for 80 days, but the union could resume it after that period if no settlement were reached.

Half Million Idle

The union, believing the big steel firms are beginning to feel the financial pinch, attacked the injunction as unconstitutional.

The Philadelphia court upheld the injunction, but gave the union six days to take the matter to the highest court.

Half a million steelworkers are on strike against 96 companies and 250,000 more in related industries are out of work.

At issue are wage increases and the industry's demand for more control over local working conditions to effect economies. The industry contends any big wage increase would be inflationary and against the national interest because it would force a rise in steel prices. Prestrike wages averaged $3.11 an hour.

One Agent Will Tend Stations on 55-Mile Section

The New York Central Railroad today was authorized by the Public Service Commission to assign jurisdiction to the Millerton agent of all stations on a 55-mile portion of the Harlem Division from Philmont to Pawling.

The PSC said the railroad must provide shelters for passengers waiting for trains, or continue those in existence. The railroad must provide pickup and delivery service for less than carload freight and continue the handling of carload freight at all points involved and accept calls at Millerton from area freight customers.

The Millerton man will be the only one on the division between Chatham and Brewster.

The ruling of the PSC calls for replacement of resident agents at all stations by a traveling representative working out of Millerton. That representative will make daily calls on freight patrons in the communities between Philmont and Pawling as well as those in Craryville and Copake Falls.

Passengers will be able to purchase tickets only at Pawling, but one-way fares will be accepted on trains without extra charge. Those using commutation or trip tickets may buy them at other stations or by mail.

The PSC order followed by a day one from the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing the Boston and Albany Railroad to abandon a 10-mile stretch linking Claverack and Ghent.

Savings and Loan Members Attend Ninth Institute

Nine staff members of the Savings and Loan Association of Kingston attended the ninth annual upstate regional conference of the American Savings and Loan Institute in Albany, Oct. 24. Those attending were: H. Van Wyck Darrow, executive vice president of the Association; William R. Stall, H. Edward Carter, Edward R. Dunn, Henry Jordan, Guy C. Seligman, Mrs. Lawrence MacAvery, Mrs. Lloyd Findholt and Mrs. Oliver Brace.

Capital District Chapter 131 was host for the conference with the sessions being held at the Sheraton Ten Eyck Hotel. H. Edward Carter of the local Association is first vice-president of the chapter.

Edmund J. Zensen of the Pioneer Building, Loan and Savings Association of Troy was general chairman and William R. Stall, cashier of the savings and Loan Association of Kingston, was program chairman for the conference. Approximately 175 delegates were in attendance from chapters in Buffalo, Elmira, Rochester, Syracuse, and Utica, as well as the Albany chapter.

Panel, Speech Contest

The morning session consisted of a panel discussion "What Management Expects From Employes' moderated by Joseph Holzka, executive vice-president of the Northfield Savings and Loan Association of Staten Island, who is immediate past president of the United States Savings and Loan League. Also during the morning session a speech elimination contest was held between representatives of New York City Chapter 18, Western New York Chapter 17, Rochester Chapter 82, and Capital District 131. Mrs. Rae T. Borriello of New York Chapter 18 was declared the winner and will represent New York State in the finals of the speech contest to be held at the forthcoming United States Savings and Loan League Convention in Dallas, Tex.

At the conference luncheon, the address was delivered by James F. Bonnell, assistant vice-president of the Federal Home Loan Bank of N.Y. His topic was "Public Relations."

In the afternoon, a seminar on "Memory and Personality Development" was conducted by Irv. Wermont, nationally known humorist, author, and educator from Boston, Mass.

Following this, a panel group moderated by Jay Spaulding, executive assistant from the American Savings and Loan Institute headquarters in Chicago discussed "The Program of the Institute."

The conference banquet in the evening was presided over by Allen L. Gillett, president of the Pioneer Building, Loan and Savings Association of Troy. The principal address "Psychology In Action" was delivered by Irv. Wermont.

Others in Attendance

Others in attendance at the conference were Charles R. Murray, deputy superintendent of Banks of the State of New York, William H. Bodine, executive assistant to the president of the Savings Association League of New York State. Also attending were a number of managers from the larger upstate associations.

The American Savings and Loan Institute is the educational branch of the United States Savings and Loan League. Capital District Chapter 131 has members enrolled from seventeen associations in Albany, Catskill, Cobleskill, Gloversville, Greenwich, Hoosick Falls, Johnstown, Kingston, Mechanicville, Schenectady, Troy and Voorheesville.

Tillson P-TA To Hear Guest Speaker Nov. 5

HARRY RIGBY JR.

Guest speaker at the Tillson Parent - Teacher Association meeting Thursday, Nov. 5, 8 p. m. at the school will be Harry Rigby Jr., well-known authority on local folklore.

He will speak on the Hudson - Champlain celebration, which he has been active in formulating and executing. He is a past director of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce and is vice-president of the Kingston Coal Company.

Former Resident Buys Drug Store In Seneca Falls

A former resident of Tillson, Stephen Bull, has recently purchased the Van Gorder Rexall Pharmacy, Seneca Falls.

Mr. Bull is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bull, of Luguna Beach, Calif., formerly of Tillson, and a graduate of Kingston High School. He is married to the former Elaine Edna Popp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Popp of Tillson. A graduate of Union University he received his degree from Albany College of Pharmacy in 1951. He is a veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict.

One of the few pharmacists who may practice in 45 of the 50 United States, he at one time was employed at Vaughn's Pharmacy, Rosendale.

Mr. Bull had been a pharmacist for Lyle Van Gorder, owner of the retail drug store, for the past seven years and assumed ownership just recently. The store was founded at its present site about 1864 when a traveling medicine show came to Seneca Falls and its operator founded Mundy's Drug Store.

Scout Awards Are Given, Meeting Has Fable Skits

Presentation of awards and skits in observance of the theme "Aesop's Fables" were the highlights of a recent meeting of Cub Scout Pack 4 at Fair Street Reformed Church hall.

Den 4 opened the pledge to the flag and all sang "America". All boys made individual shadow box of Aesop's fables.

Wolf badges were awarded to Peter Boyle, Jerome Nathan and Eugene Ballou. John Burns, Jon Dean Dykstra, George Jones and Jerome Nathan received one-year service pins.

Introduced to Pack 4 were, Boy Scout Richard Nardone, chief to Den 2, and Jonathan Randel and Robert Fletcher, new members.

Den 2 presented a skit, "The Bundle of Sticks" with Peter Emerick playing the role of Aesop. Den 4 presented another skit, "The Hare and the Tortoise." Games were played and Haloween refreshments were served.

Den 2 had the closing "Living circle and the Cub Scout Promise." The next meeting will be held, Monday, Nov. 23 at 7 p. m. in the church hall.

NEW YORK (AP)—The cost of the big steel strike is beginning to show up in the figures. Whether they're earnings or payroll totals they aren't pleasant.

Stockholders are being told the net loss in income in the first months of the strike. But these figures have to be read against the background of the year as a whole if they're not to be misleading.

Five Show Net Losses

The metalworking companies also are reporting their third quarter and nine months earnings. In most instances these figures cover periods when neither the steel strike nor the copper work stoppage pinched. These statements also have to be read with the final three months in mind if they are to be given their true perspective.

But, first, here are the figures.

Fifteen steel companies have reported on their third quarter operations. Five of them report net losses. Two others, with some of their activities unaffected by the strike, reported in the black but much lower net income than the previous year. Most of those showing increased earnings are small companies not involved in the strike.

Combined, the 15 show a loss for the July-August-September quarter of nearly 49 million dollars. This compares with a net income of 124 million for the same companies in the 1958 third quarter. The second largest steel producer, Bethlehem, isn't included in the list.

But this year's loss must be considered in relation to what went before.

In the first six months of the year steel users were ordering a nine-month supply of steel so that they could ride out a three-month strike, which was the longest then expected.

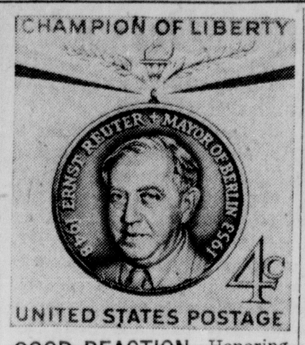

The big earnings that the steel industry piled up in the first half of the year enabled them to turn in a pleasant report for the year to date.

Nineteen steel companies report their combined nine months earnings are 443½ million dollars, a third higher than the same companies reported in the like 1958 period—a good part of which was recession ridden.

The metalworking companies have gone through the summer quarter without many bruises. Most fabricators of steel and copper products didn't first feel the strikes until October.

In this group 37 companies show only five making less for the first nine months of the year than they did in the like period of 1958.

Combined, their earnings come to $86,891,000, or an increase of 70 per cent over what the same companies reported for the 1958 period.

Sandrow Pleads Innocent to U.S. Fraud Indictment

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — A man, accused with four others of swindling Western New Yorkers out of $200,000 in a worthless oil land scheme, has pleaded innocent to a federal indictment charging mail fraud.

Albert Sandrow, 45, of New York City, was ordered held in $10,000 bail to await trial following arraignment Wednesday. Judge Harold P. Burke did not set a trial date since the fifth man in the sealed indictment returned last May has not been found.

The other three are Joseph Schoenberger, 71, of New York City, John Dillion, 46, of Chicago and John B. Sullivan, 59, of Brooklyn. Federal officers say Schoenberger is serving a sentence in Washington, D. C., on a confidence game conviction. Dillion is free in $5,000 bail pending trial here, and Sullivan is in $7,500 bail. Both pleaded innocent.

Federal authorities said the late Joseph Savage of Buffalo was the biggest loser in the alleged swindles.

Savage, a bachelor millionaire who was founder and chairman of Buffalo Crushed Stone Corp., a subsidiary of Houdaille Industries Inc., died early in 1957. He was 87.

The government said Savage lost $100,000 in the scheme which was based on the sale of New Mexico oil leases.

LIFE FOR 100 YEARS

The president-elect of the American Medical Association, Dr. E. Vincent Askey of Los Angeles, said the other day that today's children have an excellent chance of living to be 100 or even 125 years old. He considers it "very likely" that they will attain that age and enjoy good health during most of their life span.

Philosophical questions aside, the prospect of extending human life that far beyond the Biblical three score and ten is an intriguing one. It becomes doubly so if human beings are to have what Dr. Askey calls "positive, rewarding" good health for many years more than is the case in our time. He believes that this will be brought about by a revolutionary new approach to the problem of aging.

Much research is going forward. Even on the basis of what is now known, says Dr. Askey, "there is no reason why the average man cannot live to the age of 100 or more with full application of all health knowledge available to him." If there is a catch to the matter, it lies in those last words. More knowledge is important, but even more important is the application of knowledge science now possesses. It remains to be seen whether the medical profession will take the lead in making the benefits of preventive medicine available to all at a cost within their means.

Poet Robert Frost doubts that man should try to control his own evolution. So do we. He'd better first try to control his kids.

PERFUMES OF AUTUMN

The balmy air of summer is full of delicious fragrances, as more than one poet has rapturously proclaimed. The perfumes that rise from gardens and meadows are sweet beyond description. Let it be noted, however—and with no thought of detracting from summer's olfactory glories—that autumn also is a season of fine smells.

Those that first come to mind, and perhaps the best of all, are the perfumes of burning leaves and firewood. Few scents are more evocative than these. Few speak as clearly to the mind's eye.

The faintest whiff of leaf smoke conjures up visions of raking together the bright piles, of flames running at the edges and leaping into the twilight, of the glowing core suddenly obscured as new basketsful are heaped atop the old. And the smell of wood smoke fills the mind with recollections of hearth fires; all the pleasant associations—friendly warmth, ruddy flickering light, good companions—come flooding in.

There are other wonderful fall perfumes. The scent of sun-warmed apples is not to be scorned, nor that of pumpkin pies cooling at the window. Yet such as these are not required when one argues the case for the quality of autumn fragrances. Leaf smoke and wood smoke argue it well on their own.

Fidel Castro is called an avid baseball fan. He'd be just the fellow to shave on the commercial between innings.

WORKING FOR THE GOVERNMENT

If you ever wonder why taxes and government debt are at outer-space levels, some facts issued by a New York bank may help to clarify matters.

One out of every six employed Americans is now on a government payroll. Since 1900 private employment has increased 100 per cent—and government employment 650 per cent.

The Federal government runs about 20,000 commercial-industrial enterprises, with capital assets of some $12 billion, in direct competition with private business.

Federal aid to states, local communities and individuals totals about $7.2 billion a year. By way of comparison, the figure was $147 million in 1930.

We have swollen government, socialistic government, and paternal government. It devours taxes, even as it discourages and sometimes destroys taxpaying private enterprise. That's one of the big reasons why taxes, direct and indirect, take about 30 per cent of our income.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

YOUTH'S TRAVAIL

Young people today, as ever, are problems to their parents, but for other reasons than formerly. Each generation makes its own confusions. In the 1930's, some became Communists and others New Dealers, mild reformers and seekers for social justice.

Today, there are squares with their noses to the grindstone, who, having despaired of doing much to this world, seek out its physical composition. There are the long hair and short hair musicians who eschew politics and economics but go far back to Bach to justify their imaginative cacophony. There are Beatniks and anti-Beatniks, both of whom are nihilistic in their perceptions—young people who want nothing but take everything that comes their way. Then there is the rather conservative person, one of whom writes to me as follows:

". . . Today there is no commonly accepted set of values in this country on any subject whatsoever. 'Freedom' of thought and expression have been so absurdly over-emphasized that one is a square if one doesn't preface every opinion with a long line of maybes. Even scientific textbooks are being written this way. The only sin today, in academic circles, is having a partially closed mind. Yet disagree with a professor over some minor point of his pet theory, and you end up with an 'F'. This is also confusing. What did you go to college for? To learn something, or to learn how to think? Ask any honest looking student of today and he will answer that his only interest in school is passing the next test, no matter how much of a hypocrite he has to be to do so. Tough life, isn't it?"

This complaint I hear on all sides. An "A" student got a "D" on a test because she did not accept her instructor's point of view on a matter concerning which her father is a well-known expert. The instructor is not and could not be expert, but the instructor had the job and could do the marking. In my opinion, that instructor was a fool.

I was talking to a young lady who was saying things that she did not believe to be true. I asked her why. She replied that she did not dare get mixed up because if she did not parrot her professor she would get a bad mark. I suggested some well-established reading to another student; she replied that outside reading might confuse her and she would flunk her test.

The real problem here is not intellectual bigotry but physical and mental laziness. The instructor, having worked out the questions and the answers (sometimes it is done by a committee), does not want to be challenged by novelty, by the student who thinks things out for himself, who reaches another conclusion. Perhaps the instructor is not intelligent enough to capture a new idea or a new method.

For one of the greatest faults of our educational system, particularly in the best colleges and universities, is that the very top men usually devote themselves to research, or to money-making as experts, or to writing and re-writing textbooks. If they teach at all, it is to graduate students who do not really need such mighty men.

The great minds should teach freshmen, so that these boys and girls get an inspiring start. Often freshmen are taught by teachers who are intellectually not yet dry behind the ears, who are either working for a Ph.D. or have just received one, who are frightened to death that something might go wrong and that they will not get tenure which is so important to them.

Who suffers? The student is discouraged, disheartened, robbed. If a student comes from an excellent secondary school, the freshman year seems such a waste, for everything is repetitious and not as well taught. Of course, the young instructor has to start somewhere and to college administrators, it is probably regarded as sound for him to start at the bottom.

But the bottom is where the student should be most inspired to move forward, should learn work methods, and should learn how to think. To think well, it is necessary to debate, to argue, to fall on one's face intellectually. It is necessary to discover that wisdom requires enormous knowledge to support its conclusions. A freshman does not get it from another kid who is called an instructor.

★ The Doctor Says ★

There's No Need to Live in Helpless Fear of Cancer

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Can you do anything about cancer? I think so.

Here are some of the things you can do to prevent or delay cancer growth and help your doctor to detect a malignant growth while it's still possible to cut it out surgically or destroy it with some form of radiation:

Make semi-annual health visits to your doctor so he can look at visible growths on your skin and mucous surfaces, feel organs like the breast or prostate where cancers often occur and make slides of material from places like the mouth of the uterus for the pathologist to examine.

Stop smoking. Don't chew tobacco. If you must keep your jaws moving, chew gum or slippery elm bark.

Have your dentist take care of any pressure spots in your mouth. Don't let your tongue, lips or cheek suffer from chronic irritation resulting from a bad bite, missing teeth or ill-fittting dentures.

If you work with a cancer-producing substance, follow directions for prevention issued by your company or by the Department of Labor.

If you think your work requires exposure to an industrial carcinogen, check with your local health officer or write directly to the state or federal commissioner of labor.

If you work in a hospital or around X-ray equipment, use protective devices whenever you're in the vicinity of a machine that's in use.

If you work or play in the sun, wear a hat except for maybe 10 minutes a day. If you have a wart or mole on your head or face, use a sun-protective ointment while you're exposed.

Avoid cosmetics that contain hormones.

Do not ask your doctor to give you "gland shots" to relieve discomforts of the menopause or to stimulate your sexual appetite.

Have male babies circumsized when they're about a week old. It'll do you no good but there's evidence it may reduce the chances that your son will later get cancer of the prostate or his wife cancer of the uterus.

If your mother or maternal aunts died of breast cancer, don't nurse your girl babies. The evidence of inheritance through nursing is slim and controversial but don't take a chance. .....

I wish I could be more enthusiastic about our present efforts to prevent, control and destroy cancerous growths. But the public announcements during Secretary Dulles' illness, for example, must suggest to the thinking newspaper reader the width of the gap between hopes and actual accomplishments.

Looking back to the early days of my practice, I recognize many of the great achievements of surgery and irradiation. Looking forward to the next decades, I comfort myself with the hope that development of a true cure will make these achievements look as mole hills to a mountain.

Tomorrow: What You Can Do About Cancer

"I Had No Idea He Was So Heavy"

Washington News

BY RAY CROMLEY
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The Pentagon has a top secret 10-year military space program . . . . all spelled out in a closely guarded book of 100-plus pages.

Its aim:

To put an experimental 50-ton space platform in the air by 1969.

To put several experimental maneuverable military space vehicles up circling the earth by 1970.

To have a bevy of experimental spy satellites circling the earth by the middle 1960s . . . a group of five infrared-equipped missile warning satellites up by 1963.

THE 1969-70 PLATFORM and space ships would be research craft. The Pentagon planners figure it will be another decade—or almost 1980—before they have a series of G.I.-manned military space platforms stationed in the skies.

It might be even longer before a series of maneuverable space vehicles are up cruising on routine military missions.

The maneuverable military space ships—when developed—will be designed to shoot down enemy space ships and enemy ballistic missiles.

Some of these space ships will be built for spying on enemy territory. Others would be to investigate and destroy enemy spy satellites and enemy space platforms in time of war.

The space ships—according to present plans—will be developed gradually from the Dynosoar. That's the hypersonic boost-glide space plane now being developed by the Air Force.

THE SPACE PLATFORMS would be used—eventually—as staging points for military trips to the moon and planets.

Scientists say it is comparatively easy to boost a rocket into space from a platform in the sky—once you have the platform. You don't have to waste a considerable chunk of your power fighting the earth's gravity.

The space stations—more immediately—would be supply stations for the maneuverable space vehicles. They'd be stocked with extra food, fuel and spare parts.

They'd also be, of course, military science research laboratories, continually gathering space data.

The small 50-ton variety of space platform will cost well over 100 million dollars. The larger sized space stations will hit upward of a billion each.

THE SPACE PLATFORMS may be sent to the sky with Nova rockets—the powerful six-million-pound-thrust clustered engines scheduled to be developed by 1966.

The platform parts will probably be sent up piece by piece, and assembled "on the spot" in space by space construction men.

The program outlined above is in addition, of course, to the well-known plan to put six to eight research communication satellites into the skies by 1966 . . . and about five navigation satellites up and working by approximately 1962.

This Pentagon timetable — though it's the one the military space men go by—is somewhat uncertain. Whether it is carried out on schedule or not depends on how well things go, for one thing, and on how much money Congress votes, for another.

"If we don't get the money we're counting on, this whole timetable is nothing but a pipe dream," says one Pentagonian. "But we had to plan on what we think we can and must do if we're not going to lag too far behind the Russians."

Big Steel Concerns Seen Unshaken by Kaiser Pact

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—There's a lot of wishful thinking about the prospect of an early settlement of the steel strike, especially after a court injunction eventually does order the men back to work, but the outlook is far from encouraging.

For one thing, the eleven major companies are more determined than ever that the costly investment they have made in the basic issues of the strike shall not be in vain.

The settlement made by the Kaiser steel mills and the small company in Detroit doesn't in the slightest degree affect the outcome. Indeed, what the Kaiser interests settled for—which has been announced as a 10 per cent increase in its costs—would amount to a 17 per cent increase in the case of the other major steel companies, according to their spokesmen. This is because of various differences in the setup of the Kaiser companies in California as compared with the other major companies.

Workers Shifting Stand

A canvass of the position of the eleven companies shows that they do not feel in the least disturbed by the Kaiser settlement, and do not think it warrants the inferences that have been drawn by those who have said a break-up in the solid front of the Eastern and Middle Western companies is at hand.

There have been some significant goings on in the last few days. A reported change in sentiment among the workers is being widely discussed. Many of the strikers are believed to feel that their leader, David McDonald, made a tactical error in fighting the injunction by insisting on a stay of the order. An appeal on the merits could readily have been made, just the same, it is declared, without depriving the workers of the pay they would have received for going back to work immediately after the lower court last week issued its first order granting the injunction. The point is being made that since it was inevitable that the injunction would eventually be sustained, it was a waste of the workers' wages to keep them from going back to their jobs this week.

Also, in Washington, the union is believed to have lost ground by delaying the day on which the injunction would become effective. The government here is determined to have steel production resumed. It considers that an emergency has arisen. The tactics of delay by the union are regarded in Administration circles as unnecessary and as strengthening the belief that the union leaders would recklessly disregard the public interest and prolong the strike.

It is indicated among those who are well informed about the position of the eleven major companies that they will not alter their attitude, and that unless in the next few days the proposal recently made by the companies is accepted, there will be a nation-wide campaign carried on to inform the workers of just what the companies have really offered. The idea is to persuade the strikers to vote in favor of the "last offer." This procedure, which necessitates a secret ballot, is authorized under the Taft-Hartley act during the time the eighty-day injunction is in force. Many steel company men express confidence privately that the workers will not turn down the steel companies' proposal when they learn what it actually means to them in dollars and cents.

Employers Adamant

If the company offer is turned down, however, the prospect is that the strike will be resumed. For the employer group is adamant that it cannot allow its costs to rise without producing an inflationary spiral.

The President's board of inquiry will attempt, to be sure, to bring about a negotiated settlement before the matter is put to a vote of the workers. It is to the interest of the union leaders to try to get such a result in the next few days so as to make the secret ballot procedure unnecessary.

The steel companies insist that their latest offer is equivalent to an increase of 2.6 per cent in productivity and this, according to Department of Labor data, is about the same as the national average for the last two years in industry generally.

On the union side there is still hope that the employer bloc will break up and then offer further concessions, but there is not the slightest basis for such action, according to information from the companies.

Stakes Are High

All the theorizing that has been done as to what might have been accomplished by an earlier intervention by the Federal government with Presidential board to do "fact finding" or make "recommendations" is part of the wishful thinking about the steel strike that has been refuted by the true facts as revealed by the attitude of the employers. This is one strike in which the stakes are high and the steel companies, faced by foreign competition and consumer resistance to prices, feel they just cannot go beyond the increases in pay now offered unless justified in the future by increased productivity and efficiency. That's where the much talked about "working rules" become the real key to a settlement. If economies can be effected by efficiency and the introduction of new machinery, these savings will be passed on to the workers in the form of increased wages in the next three years.

WALLKILL NEWS

Gentlemen Are Guests of Local Woman's Club

WALLKILL — Gentlemen's night was held at the Wallkill Church Hall by the Wallkill Woman's Club Wednesday evening.

A baked ham dinner was served by the Willing Workers of the church. Mrs. Herman Mahlandt, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Lester Showers of Montgomery, the speaker, who showed slides of Tripoli and Morocco where she and her family had lived while her husband was a colonel in the air force. Gary Edwards accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Penney sang two spirituals and two old time songs, "Peggy O'Neil," and "When You Wore a Tulip."

On Nov. 5, Mrs. Howard Smith the president will attend the Ninth District meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie. Mrs. Clare Ostrander and Mrs. George Wildrick have been appointed to accompany her.

The next regular meeting will be at 7:30 p. m. Nov. 13. Mrs. Hugh Annesley will speak on "Handicrafts."

The Wallkill Woman's Club is one of 16,000 member clubs of the General Federation of Women's Clubs throughout the nation, which will celebrate Thanksgiving by helping people in other lands to help themselves through CARE.

As part of a national "We Count Our Blessings" program sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the local group will dedicate its meeting Nov. 13, to the observance, it was announced by Mrs. Smith, president.

Each member will participate in a candlelighting ceremony, during which she will give thanks for her own blessings by making a contribution to CARE.

Events Scheduled

The Wallkill Library Association will hold its fall meeting Monday 8 p. m. in the library. Any one interested may attend the meeting.

Brownie Troop 100 held its third meeting at the Scout Cabin in Wallkill. The troop was organized in October of this year with Mrs. William Backofen and Mrs. Percy Mack as leaders.

As a project, the girls participated in making Halloween masks for a Halloween party held this week.

Members of this new troop, made up of third graders are: Patty Agor, Martha Backofen, Susan Casey, Kathy Connolly, Rose Mary Fillingham, Jackie Gardiner, Jill Griewich, Susanne Mack, Jean Marie Masten, Teresa Napolitano, Sandra Odendohl, Eileen O'Connor, Sharon Poole, Donna Titus, Victoria Weaver, and Donna Wensley.

The Knights of Pythias Ivanhoe Lodge of Wallkill will sponsor a fish and chip supper in the Wallkill Reformed Church Hall Dec. 1. Servings will begin at 5:30 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Lodge, or by contacting the Chancellor, Ira V. DeVoe.

The youth fellowship of the Wallkill Reformed Church will hold its annual Trick-or-Treat night for Church World Service Friday 7:30 p. m. Canvassers can be identified by "Share Our Surplus" tags. A party for the young people will be held at the hall following the canvass.

Tickets are on sale for the baked ham dinner to be held in the American Legion Home sponsored and served by the Ladies Auxiliary Tuesday, Nov. 3, Election Night, beginning at 5:50 p. m. with continuous servings until 7 p. m.

Anyone not contacted by the ticket sellers may get in touch with Mrs. Harry Morehouse, president of the local unit.

Girl Scout Fund Drive

At the October meeting of the Wallkill Girl Scout Association, it was announced that Mrs. George Brach would be fund drive chairman for the Wallkill Neighborhood. A house-to-house canvass will be started Saturday, the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting in the United States.

Robert Green of Woodstock is county chairman of the drive with Richard Lent of New Paltz as co-ordinator for the fourth district which includes Wallkill, New Paltz, Highland, Clintondale and Marlboro.

With over 100 girls registered for scouting in the Wallkill area, it is hoped that people will be generous in their response to the solicitors.

Brownie Troop 78 for girls in the second grade meets Monday afternoons at the Scout Cabin with Mrs. Lee Totman, as leader. Brownie Troop 180 for girls in third grade meets on Tuesday at the Cabin, with Mrs. William Backofen as leader assisted by Mrs. Percy Mack.

Other troops will begin meeting as soon as leadership details can be worked out. Anyone interested in helping is urged to offer their service to the girls and their program.

Fire Company Film

The Wallkill Fire Department in cooperation with Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp. will show the motion picture, Rescue Breathing, a demonstration of the mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration. At this time, they will also give a demonstration of the emergency equipment which is available to the public.

The show will be held in the Wallkill High School Auditorium on Friday, Nov. 6, at 8 p. m. There is no admission charge to the program and it is open to the public.

Reformed Church Notes

Thursday, 3 p. m., junior choir rehearsal; 6:30 p. m., young people's; 7:30 p. m., senior choir.

A special service will be held in the Wallkill Reformed Church in honor of the 450th Anniversary of the birth of John Calvin. Reformation Sunday will be celebrated throughout the world by all Reformed-Presbyterian churches observing a "Calvin Jubilee."

The order for worship will be taken from the Strasbourg Liturgy, which was used by John Calvin in his ministry to Protestant refugees over 400 years ago.

At 8 p. m., an area union reformation service will be held at the Walden Reformed Church. The speaker will be Dr. Justin VanderKolk of New Brunswick Seminary.

Sunday, Nov. 8, 2 p. m., Stewardship Sunday will be observed. The annual every member canvass will be conducted. Sunday, Nov. 22, 11 a. m., the Sacrament of Baptism will be administered to infants. Parents may contact the minister as soon as possible.

So They Say..

You know what happens when the man of the house accidentally drops ashes on the living room rug. . . . Maybe we can get the same reaction on the city's streets.

—Jersey City, N. J., director of public works, August Heckman, planning to hire women street cleaners.

* * *

In a (space) race where there are only two participants, we cannot run second for very long and still talk realistically about leadership.

—Dr. T. Keith Glenman, head of National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

* * *

"Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered" is no marching song for America, even if it serves as the Republican theme song these days.

—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.).

Ruined Reputation

Aaron Burr was acquitted at his trial for treason, but his reputation was ruined. He went to Europe where he wandered for several years before returning to resume the practice of law in New York City.

The Arc de Triomphe, in Paris, was built to commemorate 96 of Napoleon's great triumphs.

Negroes Barred From Pools in Florida Resort

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Negroes were barred from six city swimming pools and other recreation areas today after quick reversal of City Manager Ira F. Willard by the Miami City Commission.

Willard had issued an order Tuesday opening the previously all-white pools and parks to Negroes and six Negroes used two pools Wednesday before the commission acted.

"I had no legal basis on which I could refuse them entry," Willard told the commissioners.

Mayor Robert King High said he had "grave fears about what might happen if Mr. Willard's order was put into effect."

Willard issued an order returning the pools and parks "to the status they were before."

The NAACP has said if the commission did not open the recreation areas it would go into court again.

Court action already has brought integration to the city's golf course and public transportation.

Lili, Sixth Do It Again

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Striptease artist Lili St. Cyr and her sixth husband, Joe Albert (Strong Boy) Zomar, 39, of Los Angeles will be married again here Friday. Thev were married in Tijuana, Mexico, Sept. 21, but, says Miss St. Cyr, "We thought it would be good to get married in California. I like California."

Communists Stay

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP) —A Moroccan court today rejected a plea by the prosecutor general for outlawing of the Communist party. The decision represented a setback for King Mohammed V, who has been anxious to see the party banned.

Political Advertisement

G. Alfred Nussbaum, Democratic candidate for Supervisor in Hurley, in a statement said: "The absence of any Democratic members on the Hurley Town Board for the past sixteen years has created an apathy—an indifference—on the part of the opposition party's members. The population of our Town has substantially increased but our Town Board is indifferent—or, worse, unaware of the new public safety problems, the new road problems, the sanitation problems and other needs that are a natural result of this growth. The Planning Board advocated by me in 1955 was appointed only after a debate sparked by a committee composed of members of both parties. The Planning Board eliminated the practice of taking over poorly based roads from developers. Such roads were expensive to maintain and had to be rebuilt at Town expense. The new Fire Company in West Hurley was organized only after the firemen had fought for it. They were concerned about the safety of lives and property. The menace to health caused by the mosquitoes last summer had to be eliminated and paid for through independent action by civic minded citizens without any assistance from the Town Board. Fortunately, we had none of the sleeping sickness disease that plagued the people of southern New Jersey as a result of mosquitoes.

The apathy on the part of the present Town Board is understandable. They have been in office so long they apparently have the impression that the voters will forever remain meek and docile and continue to reelect them regardless of the record.

My position is that the elected officials are the servants of the people, not their masters. When elected I will initiate adequate prior public notice of all Town Board meetings. I will insist upon respectful attention to remarks by citizens at Town Board meetings. I will cause a slow and deliberate reading and approval of all bills to be paid by the Town. I will promptly reveal all the facts that affect the taxpayers' dollars, whether the issue be in litigation or not in litigation. In cooperation with the Highway Superintendent, the Fire Commissioners and the Fire Companies I will provide a safety program that will protect the lives of our citizens, our children and their properties.

I am convinced the people of Hurley will support my position and my program on Election Day. That is the kind of service the people are entitled to for their tax dollars—nothing less!

Mr. Nussbaum is a Marine Corps veteran with service at Iwo Jima and other Central Pacific islands, during World War II. He is a past commander of the Woodstock American Legion Post and is now serving his second term as president of the Onteora P. T. A. A member of the West Hurley Methodist Church he has been a Sunday School Superintendent and a Sunday School teacher for years. Employed by the Rotron Company of Woodstock he lives with his wife and three children on Fairview Avenue in West Hurley.

Announce Plans For Mt. Marion Halloween Fete

Final plans for the children's Halloween parade Saturday night in Mt. Marion Park were announced today by Mrs. William Christiana, chairman.

The program is sponsored annually by Mt. Marion Civic Association.

The parade will begin at 6:30 p. m. at Center and South Road and proceed to Mt. Marion School Auditorium where judging will be held. Awards will be presented by Parade Marshal Carlton B. King.

Awards will be presented in two age groups—one to seven and eight and up—in categories of funniest, prettiest, most frightening, most unusual, and most original.

Judges will be Roland Tonnesen, Miss May Evans, Mrs. Lester Hendershot and Mrs. Helen Jacobsen.

To defray the expenses containers have been placed in local stores where contributions can be made by the public.

Priest Injured In Auto Crash

A 58-year-old Catholic priest was injured at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday when the car he was driving went out of control and crashed into a concerete culvert after traveling 200 feet along a ditch off Route 52 about two and one-half miles east of Ellenville.

State Police Corporal Nicholas Lecakes, who investigated the mishap with Trooper Alex Roskowski said the Rev. Justinian McLaughlin, of 190 West Street, Union City, N. J. was taken from the scene of the accident to Veterans Memorial Hospital in the Ellenville First Aid and Rescue Squad ambulance.

The priest was treated for a fracture of the left ankle, lacerations of the forehead and a possible cerebral concussion.

Corporal Lecakes said Father McLaughlin was driving a 1958 sedan along Route 52 and negotiating an "S" curve when the vehicle left the pavement on the north side of the highway and then traveled 200 feet along a ditch before it hit a culvert. The front of the car was extensively damaged.

Bing's Wife Cited

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bing Crosby's wife, actress Kathy Grant, is accused of negligent driving in a $50,000 damage suit filed by a retired businessman.

Herman S. Magad, 60, charges in a Superior Court action brought Wednesday that Miss Grant's auto struck a car in which he was riding last Nov. 12 in Hollywood. Magad said he suffered a neck injury and a cut on his chin. Crosby Enterprises, Inc., is named codefendant.

Decision Likely To Come Soon on 1964 Fair Site

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's commission on selection of a city for a 1964 world fair probably will make its recommendations within a week, the White House says.

The three cities bidding for the fair are New York, Washington and Los Angeles.

Ann Southern Owes $7,120.94 in Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ann Sothern, television star, says she only owes $7,120.94 in back taxes, not $722,322.44 as the government claims.

She filed an appeal from the big tax bill Wednesday in U.S. Tax Court.

The dispute involves proceeds from Miss Sothern's sale of her part ownership of a TV series.

Drug Discoverer

The drug aureomycin is obtained from a mold which was discovered by B. M. Dugger of Pearl River, N. Y. The antibiotic derives its name from its golden color.

Prelim Summit Slated in Paris On December 15

PARIS (AP)—The Western summit meeting will be held in Paris about Dec. 15, Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, announced today.

The meeting of President Eisenhower, President Charles de Gaulle, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer is designed as a preliminary to an East-West summit meeting.

Couve de Murville, in a report to a committee of the National Assembly, reiterated de Gaulle's stand that the East-West summit should take place next spring.

He said Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to France, previously announced, will be in the first three months of 1960.

Gen. Smith Critical

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Walter Bedell Smith is in critical condition in Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Smith was President Eisenhower's chief of staff in World War II. He later served as director of the Central Intelligence Agency, undersecretary of state and ambassador to the Soviet Union.

Smith, 64, is suffering from pneumonia and a lung abscess.

All 82 in U.N. Agree to Sponsor Arms Resolution

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — In an unprecedented action, all 82 U.N. members have agreed to join in sponsoring an East-West disarmament resolution.

Never before have Israel and the Arab states cosponsored a U.N. proposal. Nor is there any precedent for the appearance of the Soviet Union and Nationalist China on the same list of sponsors.

The resolution calls for turning over all disarmament proposals made before the General Assembly to the 10-nation East-West committee that will meet in Geneva next February. The resolution endorses no specific arms proposal but refers indirectly to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's plan for total disarmament within four years and British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd's call for step by step disarmament.

Atlas Fired Over Ocean

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An Atlas missile crowned with a new tactical-type nose cone thundered over the Atlantic early today on an intercontinental range flight.

This was the second test for the new cone, which stood nearly 12 feet tall atop the 80-foot missile. The first test earlier this month was successful.

In Washington, a spokesman for the Air Force called today's test a success. He said all its objectives had been reached.

The Air Force calls this its second generation nose cone and plans eventually to use it in place of smaller cones which now top the Atlas, Thor and Titan missiles.

The cone is designed for faster re-entry, heavier payloads and greater accuracy.

Another of the nation's big war rockets, the intermediate range Thor, was fired successfully a few hours earlier on a 1,500-mile flight.

Cubs Give Banks $10,000 Boost to Record $60,000

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs today announced signing of their star shortstop, Ernie Banks, for 1960 and it was guessed his salary was upped $10,000 to a near club record $60,000.

"Both Ernie and the club are well satisfied with his new contract," said Cub vice president John Holland.

Banks reportedly received a $45,000 base salary with a $5,000 bonus this year when he hit 45 home runs, drove across 143 runs and set two new major league fielding records.

The club salary record is the $65,000 contract Ralph Kiner carried to the Cubs from the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1953.

Holland said Banks signed next year's contract shortly after the finish of the 1959 season.

Civic Association Delegates Attend Forum on Schools

Wilson C. Van Duzer, state assemblyman from Orange County, was guest of honor and principal speaker at a special statewide meeting of the Council on Educational Needs at Newburgh last week.

Assemblyman Van Duzer is the sponsor of the resolution for a joint legislative investigation of the State Education Department.

He pointed out, in his speech, the increased costs for education and showed examples of costly spending, whereas the actual standards of education were being lowered. He warned against those, who are being sent to the Legislature who are career seekers and not truly servants of the people.

He advised the people to join taxpayers associations to gain strength to combat this condition. There is an overall picture in the department and right on down throughout the schools to throw out customs, traditions and rights.

After the speech, a general forum was held. Delegates from all over the state participated.

Among those attending the meeting were W. L. (Dick) Rider of Kingston, Howard Mansfield of Tillson, and Miss Anna Witthoft, secretary of Kingston Civic Association.

Rosendale

The Town of Rosendale Republicans will hold a torchlight parade, Monday night, Nov. 2, and a spokesman for the party said automobiles will assemble at campaign headquarters on Main Street.

Trick or treat features for the children of the community will take place at the Town of Rosendale Republican headquarters Saturday afternoon and evening.

Vengeance Results as Heat Increases

Castro's Hate Campaign Is Likened To Harangues of Benito and Hitler

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Fidel Castro is earnest about wanting a democratic Cuba, then why all the blood?

Prime Minister Castro has been in effect dictator since his rebel army last New Year's Day threw out Fulgencio Batista's dictatorship and took over.

Depends on Mobs

He has called for land reforms, probably badly needed, and other social changes. But Cuba is in growing turmoil. Criticism of his regime is rising.

He was an inspired rebel military leader but now gives the impression of a man too emotional, chaotic and disorganized to run a government.

As the heat increases, he thinks of vengeance. He calls for death for his enemies by firing squads and depends not on ballots but on mobs for support.

His government suspended Congress Jan. 6, put off new elections for 18 to 24 months, suspended criminal courts, and, through military courts, rolled up 555 executions by firing squads.

Yet he said Cuba will remain a democracy. "We are men of the law."

Troubles Continue

The firing squads worked for months, were finally stopped. But his troubles continued. This week he summoned 250,000 Cubans to a rally in Havana.

He outdid Hollywood by arriving in a helicopter, gun in hand, denounced the United States and asked the mob for approval for new firing squads. He got it.

This was reminiscent of last January when the firing squad execution of so-called war criminals was being severely criticized abroad and he called together a rally of a million Cubans to approve what he was doing to his enemies.

His idea of justice was to try a foe in a sports stadium, with not a single witness appearing in his defense, before 18,000 people. The crowd included American newspapermen his government invited down to see the spectacle.

This was what happened in the case of Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, who had directed Batista's army operations against Castro. There was never any doubt of the outcome: the major was sentenced to death before a firing squad.

When Castro addresses a mob he harangues, he screams, he appeals to hate in a way Hitler or Mussolini might have found refreshing.

He denies he is a Communist but turns with fury on any who say he is or complain that Communists are infiltrating his government.

In Emotional Spin

He has done this three times to men once close to him.

On Oct. 19 Maj. Hubert Matos, one of Castro's most respected revolutionary leaders, resigned as commander of Camaguey province, charging the Castro regime was being penetrated by Communists.

Castro had him arrested and before Monday night's mob virtually signed the major's death warrant by asking approval for Matos' execution by a firing squad. The mob responded: "Firing squads! Firing squads!"

On July 13 Manuel Urrutia, Castro's handpicked president, blasted Cuban Communists although declaring Castro's government "has absolutely nothing to do with Communists." Why this threw Castro into an emotional spin is not clear. But it did. He accused Urrutia of "near treason."

On July 17 Castro denounced Urrutia on television and, in a play for mob support against the President, resigned as prime minister. A few hours later Urrutia resigned. Then Castro went back as prime minister.

The most sensational case was that of Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz, who resigned June 30 as Cuban air force chief, fled to the United States, and told a Senate committee Castro was a Communist. Cuban officials called him a liar.

On Oct. 19 — the same day Matos resigned — Havana was plastered with leaflets from a plane flying over Havana. This was the latest of several similar leaflet air drops.

The former air force chief several days ago told U.S. authorities he had piloted an unarmed aircraft over Havana last Wednesday. Later he publicly denied this statement. He is in the United States.

These various episodes so inflamed Castro that at Monday's rally he denounced the United States. The U. S. State Department protested in a stiff reply. The episode of the plane put this country in an embarrassing fix.

But Castro didn't gain anything, except mob approval, for his performance. The net result: tattered relations between Cuba and the United States.

Rhinebeck Boy Is Hurt as Bicycle And Auto Collide

A 7-year-old Rhinebeck boy was injured at 5:40 p. m. Wednesday when his bicycle was involved in a collision with an automobile on Route 9 about one and one-half miles south of the village of Rhinebeck.

State Police Sergeant Walter Donegan said that Robert Wack, Haggerty Hill Road, Rhinebeck, was taken to the Northern Dutchess Health Center suffering fractures of the left arm and left leg.

Trooper Fred Thumhart reported a 1956 sedan owned and operated by Joseph Osborne, 63, RD, Rhinebeck, was traveling north on Route 9 and the boy was riding his bicycle in a southerly direction when the collision occurred.

Why We Say--

BURNING POCKETS: A Swedish scientist who was troubled with ordinary matches burning his pockets invented the first safety match in 1855. The scientist, Botger, perfected a match which would not ignite unless it came into contact wih another substance, phosphorous, giving rise to the popular cigarette "book" matches

Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

GRINNELL, Iowa (AP) — Dr. Rupert Adam Hawk, 56, faculty member and former acting president of Grinnell College, died Tuesday of a heart attack. He was interim president in 1954 and was treasurer of the college and secretary of the Board of Trustees from 1949 to 1956.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Merlin Test, 51, makeup editor of the Miami Herald, died Wednesday of a heart attack. Test, who joined the Herald 16 years ago, was born at Dayton, Ohio.

EL RENO, Okla. (AP)—Joseph Danne, 72, who developed Triumph variety wheat, died Wednesday. Danne, who had only a grade school education, started experimenting with animals and plants as a youngster and in 1927 he started work on his Triumph wheat. He was born at Avoca, Neb.

Pennsy Reports September Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad promoted two of its top executives Wednesday and reported a September loss that put the nation's largest road into the red for the first nine months of 1959.

James M. Symes, 62, the PRR's president, was appointed chairman of the board and chief executive officer. Both posts have been vacant.

Allen J. Greenough, 54, vice president in charge of transportation and maintenance, succeeded Symes as president and also was made chief administrative officer.

Before the appointments were disclosed, the railroad announced that it lost $2,281,792 in September — wiping out the nearly two million dollars earned in the first nine months of 1959 and creating a deficit of $449,346 for the year through September.

The steel strike was blamed for the September loss. It was compared with a profit of $1,643,395 in September 1958. The nine-month deficit, however, was compared with a loss of $6,899,035 for the similar 1958 period.

Valuable Works Found

LONDON (AP) — Five grime-covered paintings found in a ramshackle shed in Ireland were declared today to be old masters worth more than a million dollars.

The paintings, said London art expert David Carritt, are by the 18th century artist Francesco Guardi.

Sees Jane as Target

LONDON (AP) — Comment in the House of Commons Wednesday night by Harold Wilson of Britain's Labor party Wednesday night:

"The soviets have photographed the reverse side of the moon. The summit of Western aspirations has been to photograph the reverse side of Miss Jayne Mansfield."

Conway to Speak At Esopus GOP Rally Tonight

Former County Judge J. Edward Conway will be the principal speaker tonight at a Town of Esopus Republican rally to be held in the Town Auditorium at Port Ewen starting at 8 p. m. Judge Conway is now serving as a member of the New York State Commission Against Discrimination.

Also scheduled to speak will be Jesse McHugh, majority leader of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors, supervisor from Shawangunk where he has held that office for 10 years. He will speak on "County Government."

Town candidates also will be present and address the meeting. Republicans and all independent voters are invited to attend the rally, after which refreshments will be served.

Dies of Injuries

LACKAWANNA, N. Y. (AP) — Louis Fronekowiak, 64, of suburban Cheektowaga died Wednesday night in Our Lady of Victory Hospital of injuries suffered Saturday in a two car collision on a county road near here.

Leonard Lowman, 20, of nearby Woodlawn was killed in the accident.

30 Years Ago Today

Another Black Tuesday In Market Is Unlikely

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Anaylst

NEW YORK, (AP)—Like the survivors of the blizzard of 1888 the survivors of Black Tuesday on the stock market have long memories. It was 30 years ago today—Oct. 29, 1929—that the bottom dropped out of the stock market.

Today's stock market has been booming. But most brokers stress all the measures taken since 1929 to keep the debacle from happening again. And they think the majority of Americans are more sensible now.

Wiped Out Overnight

Stock prices had been riding high in 1929—ridiculously high, whether measured by earnings, assets or prospects.

The little fellow was in the market up to his neck — and often over it. He had taken his life savings to gamble. Often he had only a 10 per cent equity in his holdings. The rest was borrowed money.

So, many were wiped out overnight. Banks tottered. The depression — not prosperity — was just around the corner.

On Black Tuesday a record 16,410,030 shares were traded on the New York Stock Exchange in the frantic effort to unload. In a series of lesser falls prices kept on going down until mid-1932.

But in the wake of Black Tuesday came a long series of measures by the government and by private business and financial institutions to tidy up stock market practices and guard against a repetition of the disaster.

This year daily trading averaged 3,800,000 in the first three months, 3,200,000 in the second quarter, and 2,800,000 in the third.

SEC Keeps Close Check

This year you must have a 90 per cent cash down payment when you buy a share, not 10 per cent.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (born in the 1930s) takes a close look at any new stock offered for sale. It and the stock exchanges police the activities of corporations whose stocks are listed.

Federal insurance agencies back bank deposits and guarantee home mortgages.

You can get badly hurt in the stock market today. That's for sure.

15 Cars Leave Tracks

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — Fourteen coal cars and the caboose of a Baltimore & Ohio freight train ran off the tracks and piled up near the small McKean County community of Backus Wednesday night. It was the second B&O derailment near Bradford in the last eight days.

In the derailment Wednesday, some cars plunged over an embankment into a stream. Tons of coal were spread over the area. No one was hurt.

The 97-car train was en route from Punxsutawney to East Salamanca, N. Y. The rest of the cars proceeded to their destination.

The cause of the derailment or amount of damages were not learned immediately.

On Oct. 20, 18 loaded coal cars of a 116-car B&O train derailed at Howard Junction, 10 miles north of Bradford. Backus is about 14 miles south of Bradford.

2 Students Lose Lives, 4 Others Hurt in Mishap

ALFRED STATION, N. Y. (AP) —Two Alfred Tech students were killed and four injured today when the automobile in which they were riding struck a tree in this Allegany County community.

The dead are: George Irving Crane Jr., 24, of Cortland, the driver, and George Heather, of Riverhead.

Both suffered fractured skulls. Heather also had a broken neck.

Treated at a hospital and released were: Thomas Thurman, of East Rochester; John Brazier, 19, of Rochester; Donald Danials, 18, William M. Ustron, 19, of Carmel.

said the car failed to make a right hand turn near the center of the village and struck the tree.

Dr. Irwin Felsen, Wellsville, Allegany County coroner, said he would issue accidental death certificates.

Ex-Rink Player Dies

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Fred B. Naylor, a former member of the New York Rangers of the National Hockey League, died Wednesday in Deaconess Hospital after a brief illness. He was 60.

A native of Montreal, Naylor also played professional hockey with the Hamilton, Ont., Tigers and the Montreal Shamrocks. He operated a liquor store here.

Spring Lake Vols Plan Halloween Party on Saturday

Elaborate plans have been made for the third annual Halloween party by members of the Spring Lake Fire Department scheduled Saturday night.

The party, according to John Mahoney, chairman, will get underway at 7 o'clock at the firehouse, Lucas Avenue Extension.

All children of the fire district are invited and a full program of events is in readiness.

Mahoney said there will be games, refreshments and the usual awards for Halloween costumes.

GM Laying Off 1,200 Rochester

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Twelve hundred hourly wage rate employes at the Rochester Products Division of the General Motors Corp., will be laid off beginning Friday, the company has announced.

The announcement, made on Wednesday, blamed a shortage of steel as a result of the nationwide steel strike.

The division employs approximately 2,100 workers, including 700 salaried employes. It manufactures motor components.

Another 2,300 employes at GM's Delco Appliance Division here have been idled since early this month as a result of the steel shortage.

Friday's layoffs will bring the total number of idled GM workers in Western New York to an estimated 11,182. More than 22,000 persons in the state have been idled as a result of the strike.

Polishing cocoa beans by treading them underfoot is called "dancing the beans" in Trinidad.

Growth of Club In N.Y., World Heard by Lions

Thomas M. Kelly, district governor of Lions District 20-0, New York, told about the tremendous growth of Lionism in New York City and the work of outstanding Lions in various parts of the world, during a talk at the regular meeting of the Kingston Lions Club Tuesday.

Mr. Kelly is a Charter Monarch member of the Amenia Lions Club and has maintained a perfect attendance record of 10 years. He has held every office in his home club with the exception of secretary. He has served for four years on previous district governor's cabinets including three years as zone chairman and one year as deputy district governor.

Served With Stall

One year of his service as zone chairman he was on the cabinet of William R. Stall of the Kingston Lions Club when he was district governor in 1956-1957. He was elected governor at the Lake Placid convention last June.

Lions International is now represented in 102 countries or geographical locations of the world with approximately 15,000 clubs and 600,000 members. New York State has 400 clubs and some 25,000 members. The Kingston Club is in District 20-0 which is one of eight districts in the state and is composed of some 50 clubs located in six counties.

Tells of Work in India

On his visit to the local club, Kelly made particular mention of the excellent work the Lions Clubs in India are doing in feeding the starving population and rendering free medical services. The governor also commended the Kingston Club for its many service projects.

Lion Kelly presented the local club with a colored picture of Melvin Jones, the founder of the world's largest service club organization known as Lions International. Special tribute was paid by the governor to the outstanding work being accomplished by J. Wilson Tinney of the Kingston club who is presently serving as zone chairman for the clubs in the area.

RosendaleMayor'sWife Dies in Kingston Today

Mrs. Catherine M. Vaughn, 65, wife of J. W. Vaughn, mayor and local druggist of Rosendale, died in Kingston early this morning following a long illness.

She was born in Brooklyn, a daughter of the late James and Mary Healy Hester, and had resided in Rosendale for many years.

Surviving besides her husband, are a son, John W. Vaughn Jr. of Saugerties; a sister, Mrs. Agnes Kenny of Glendale; two brothers, James and John Hester of Brooklyn and nine grandchildren.

Funeral will be held from the George J. Moylan Funeral Home, Main Street, Rosendale, Saturday 9:30 a. m. and at St. Peter's Church, Rosendale, 10 a. m. where a high Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rosendale. Friends may call tonight from 7 to 9 and Friday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Whale Breathing

Ordinarily, whales do not stay under water very long by choice. Fifteen minutes to half an hour is about the average dive for the baleen whales, but some of the toothed whales have remained submerged for more than an hour.

Posted Wallets

Rifled wallets often are dropped into mailboxes by pickpockets to avoid being caught with the evidence. An average of 80 such wallets reach New York City post offices every day.

Gulf Coast refineries produce enough gasoline each day to run 25,500 cars around the world at the equator.

Van Doren, Hank Admit TV Help, Report Asserts

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles Van Doren and Hank Bloomgarden reportedly have admitted to the district attorney that they received both questions and answers prior to their appearances on the NBC TV quiz show Twenty-One.

The New York Times today attributed its information to "an authoritative source in the Criminal Courts Building."

The New York Herald Tribune, in its edition today, quoted "a reliable source."

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan refused to confirm or deny the reports.

The Times quoted Van Doren as saying: "I think that Monday is only five days away. I'm not in a position to start talking about it now. It would put me in such a terrible light, not only with the Congress, but with the other newspapers to whom I have refused to speak that I feel I must say, 'No comment.' "

Van Doren, who won $129,000 on Twenty-One, now dropped by NBC, is scheduled to testify next week in Washington before a House special subcommittee.

Bloomgarden, who won $98,500 on the quiz show, was quoted by the Times as saying: "You go ahead and print what you want. I don't intend to get into an argument about it. I have no comment as to whether I received any help."

Bloomgarden has not been invited to testify before the House committee.

Red Hook Man Named to IBM Library Post

The appointment of William D. Boucher, of Red Hook, as a staff assistant in the Engineering Library was announced today by Harold D. Ross, manager of research and engineering at the IBM Federal Systems Division laboratory, Kingston.

Boucher joined IBM in February, 1955, as a clerk at the Poughkeepsie plant. In June, 1956, he was promoted to clerical specialist, and in September, 1957, he became a department technician at the library in Poughkeepsie. In February, 1958, he was transferred to Kingston as an administrative aid in the library, the post he held until his present appointment.

Boucher has studied at West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, Texas, and is now studying at Marian College, Poughkeepsie. He is a veteran of four years service with the U. S. Air Force.

Boucher, his wife, Lorraine, and children, Denise, 2, and Cary, 4 months, reside at 88 Cambridge Drive, Red Hook.

14 New Members Join Ulster Cubs

The Cub Scouts of Pack 10, sponsored by the Ulster Hose Fire Company held their first meeting at their new meeting place, the Lake Katrine Grange Hall Monday. There was a good turnout of parents and 14 new bobcats were taken into the pack.

At the parent's meeting, Cubmaster John Cook introduced Mrs. Evelyn Henion who will preside over the meetings in the future, and the new treasurer, Mrs. Terry Fischang. Mrs. J. Sande spoke on the benefits of staging a marionette show in the future, profitable as well as entertaining for Cubs, their friends and families. More definite details will be announced.

Alfrederick Kilmer, president of the Ulster Hose Firemen, and Louis DeGraff each said a few words in regards to the fact Pack 10 was no longer meeting at the firehouse, were sorry to see them go, but with the larger quarters at the Grange, they believed it was probably a move for the better.

At the combined meeting, Den 2 held the Flag ceremony with all the boys of the den reading a piece about the Flag. Ronald Fischang led in the salute to the flag. With the theme, Aesop's Fables and Halloween combined, Cubs were dressed in costumes and all wore masks they had made of a Fable character. During the grand march, they were judged by three fathers, John Kerr, Michael Tulp and Werner Kolln, with Michael Dall, Steven Fowler, and Steven Hotaling winning awards. They also judged the pumpkins grown by the boys of Den 2 this summer, with Steven Fowler winning as grower of the largest pumpkin.

At the Bobcat ceremony, the following boys were taken into the pack:

Keith Knapp, Michael Tulp, Calvin Ehlers, John Benjamin, David Bell, Paul Klaus, Christophere Meiers, Kevin Kerr, Kevin Plattner, Werner Kolln, Kevin Hartigan, Gary Matthews, Patrick McManamon, and Michael McGregor. Parents of the boys stood with them, and also repeated a pledge of cooperation and understanding.

Mrs. John Cook dressed as a witch then appeared, and from her pot of brew brought forth the following awards:

One year pins — David Petersen, Steve Hotaling and Den Mother Gladys Petersen; two year pins — Warner Miller, Howard Hotaling, Donald Brott; three year pin — Den Mother Gloria Hotaling.

Lion badges were awarded Ronald Fischang, Robert Cook, and Donald Brott. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ohlson and Mrs. Henion will be in charge of the new Webelos den, and Mrs. Ohlson welcomed the new and present Lions into the den.

Dens 2, 4, 5, and 6 each presented a reading of an Aesop Fable. Closing song was by Den 3, after which Halloween candy was distributed to all cubs and children guests. Refreshments were served to all by Dens 2 and 3.

Theme for November pack meeting is The Country Store, on Nov. 23 at the Grange. Round table meets at the Tillson School Nov. 16. Next committee meeting at the home of Mrs. Sande Nov. 2.

Named Alternate In Community Relations Project

PETER GIPPERT

A 15 year old 4-H Club member of Kingston, Peter Gippert, has been selected as New York State alternate in the National Community Relations Program.

Peter has been active in 4-H Club work for seven years, and his projects have included, garden, home grounds, crafts, hamster, rabbits, conservation, and foods. He has been active in demonstration work, county fair and the 4-H camping program. He has spent many hours working on the construction of the 4-H Camp at Plutarch, an was a 4-H camper and junior camp counselor.

Active at Fair

Living in urban area has not prevented Peter from working with some of the other 4-H projects as at county fair, Peter was on hand to help set up the fair, at Forsyth Park and tear it down. He usually spent his full time at the fair. You would find him helping other 4-H members with their livestock and exhibits, and he even borrowed a dairy animal, groomed her and participated in the dairy showmanship contest. He also participated in various dairy and poultry judging contests.

Young Gippert was always volunteering to do something. A request went out for volunteers for a 4-H Club radio broadcast. He answered the call, and has been faithfully conducting and presenting the weekly 4-H Radio program over WKNY for over two years. He has added to his regular broadcasts, interviews at county and district 4-H events, and have taped several of these events.

Peter has been a delegate to State 4-H Club Congress at Ithaca, has attended District 4-H Club events and New York State Fair.

His community work has been with the TB and Health Association, Polio drives and other activities. He is an active member of the Presbyterian Church, Sunday school and youth activities. He is a second year student at Kingston High School and as busy as he may be, he is always volunteering to help in 4-H Club or Community Activities.

Developed His Own

Peter Gippert fitted into the community relations program by developing his own and other 4-H members personal talents and bring the ideas, purposes and values of 4-H Club work to the attention of the community and general public.

The community relations program is sponsored by William Wrigley Jr. Company of Chicago, Ill. Ronald A. Smith of Herkimer County who is delegate will compete for one of two $400 scholarships.

Shokan

SHOKAN—Mrs. William J. Loos and daughter Patricia of Inwood, L. I., were weekend guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly and three daughters.

Mrs. Otto Rast is again at her Route 28 home following a visit of several months to her native Germany. Mrs. Rast made the round trip to Europe by jet plane. She has a brother and sister in Germany.

Recent heavy rains in the mountains has brought the sadly depleted west Ashokan basin close to the normal flowline.

The Robert Kroms having bought the A. Sheeley house at Napanoch, moved to that place recently.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Kuniholm, Woodstock, were Sunday callers in Shokan.

Dr. Harry P. Van Wagenen, 85, who died Oct. 22 had many friends in the reservoir country where he practiced several years. Dr. Van Wagenen formerly had a summer place in Shokan.

Frank Barclay who moved to Ashokan from Ravena last year is reportedly a patient at Benedictine Hospital.

Linda France, Pine Hill, attended a birthday party for Susan Witko at the latter's home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Crawford have moved from Ohayo Mountain to the old Crawford homestead in South Olive.

Wild geese in considerable number were shot earlier in October along the east branch of the Delaware River between Roxbury and the new Pepacton Dam, according to the Catskill Mountain News. Some of the geese which were flying south in great flocks, weighed eight pounds.

The Henry Dewitts of Wall Street Kingston, have taken possession of the former Adolf Rosenbusch tavern property on the reservoir road here. Mrs. Rosenbusch reportedly has moved to Kingston.

Robert Thornell, IBM employe who has been made editor of the Onteora P-TA News, with his family has been a local resident the past two years.

Memoriam

In memory of A. J. Donnelly who died 1 year ago today, Oct. 29, 1958.

When you breathed your last farewell
The blow was more than tongue can tell;
Earth seems quite another place
Without the smile of your dear face.
Sleep on dear Daddy and take your rest
For God has called when He knew best.
Deep in our hearts you are with us yet,
We loved you too dearly to ever forget.

WIFE and CHILDREN.

Memoriam

In loving memory of Harold Johnson who passed away October 29, 1939.

The blow was great, the shock severe,
We little thought the end was near,
And only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.

SISTER

Universalists Urge Decent Treatment of Space Beings

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religious Writer

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Universalists were concerned today not only about creatures on this earth—but in the spheres beyond.

Shaping up for the space age, the church officially urged that any other-worldly beings be treated decently—wherever and whenever they are encountered.

A wave of quizzical laughter greeted the presentation of this resolution Wednesday night to approximately 600 church representatives.

But they then moved soberly ahead to make it Universalist policy for the Universe.

It endorsed the "principle of international authority over the exploration of outer space."

Stress Humane Respect

It also counseled "the highest level of humane respect for such forms of life or societies as may perchance be encountered elsewhere in the Universe."

The church also advocated United Nations membership for "all nations that will give assent to its charter provisions," including—as inferred in debate—Red China.

Praising changes wrought by the Red Chinese regime, the Rev. Allen F. Sawyer of Munson, Mass., said the United States should show "more compassion" toward it and stop opposing its representation in the UN.

The Rev. Gale Bascomb of Everett, Mass., said: "We're never going to be able to deal with these people until we get them on the inside."

Disagrees With Idea

Retorted Carl F. Foden of Philadelphia: "We've got the Russians inside and we haven't been able to handle them."

The measure passed by a heavy majority. Only one other denomination, The United Presbyterian, has taken a similar position, urging study looking toward seating Red China.

The Universalist Church also urged "the permanent cessation of nuclear weapons by the United States, whether or not other nations stopped their tests."

The resolution said that radioactive fallout imperilled present and future generations and that such tests were "part of an arms race, threatening extinction of human life upon earth."

The resolutions were drawn up by a committee headed by the Rev. Walter Jones of Worcester, Mass.

Big Session Today

The actions came on the eve of a joint Universalist-Unitarian assembly today to hammer out terms of a proposed merger, including the place of Jesus in it.

Whether or not He will be accorded primacy in the religious prospectus of the proposed church was at issue.

The merger plans had firm backing from the chief executives of both creedless denominations.

The Rev. Dr. Dana McLean Greeley, president of the American Unitarian Assn., said that by combining the bodies, "liberal religion will be strengthened in our modern world."

Sees Significant Goal

"We can. . .develop the most significant religious movement and affirmations since the Protestant Reformation, or even since the dawn of history," he said.

In his first public declaration on the subject, the Rev. Dr. Philip R. Giles, general superintendent of the Universalist Church, also voiced support of the merger.

"I do not believe the liberal voice has any right to be fragmented in this day and age," he said.

Whether the combined church would maintain a specific Christian orientation became a major question. The proposed merger plan omits any definite reference to Jesus or His teachings.

In the past, both separate bodies have singled out Jesus as a focal point of faith in their stated purpose.

New York City's All Souls Unitarian Church, led by the Rev. Walter D. Kring, is pressing an amendment to get this factor restored in the proposed merger constitution.

It must be done, Mr. Kring said, "unless we are to go off on some synthetic new tangent, divorced from our traditional roots in the person and ethics of Jesus."

Neither church requires any fixed beliefs, leaving the path wide open to each individual to determine his own convictions.

matter of FACT

By experiment scientists have found the speed of sound in air to be 1,087 feet per second (738 miles per hour) when the temperature is 32 degrees. The speed increases as the temperature rises. Sound travels much faster in water, covering 4,709 feet per second at 46 degrees (3,210 miles per hour). In steel, sound can travel one mile in one-third of a second (11,160 miles per hour).

Radel Answer Is Awaited on Talk By School Board

A statement by Mayor Edwin F. Radel made public yesterday which implied that the board of education had been "unwilling" to discuss a compromise on the proposed building of a new school, was strongly objected to by school authorities.

Andrew J. Cook Jr., attorney for the board of education, took exception to the remark and said that the board was ready and willing to discuss the matter at any time. He said that Robert H. Herzog had expressed a willingness to meet with the mayor at any time to discuss the proposal. "The board was willing yesterday, today or any time" to meet with the mayor or the corporation counsel and discuss the matter.

Cook said that the mayor had been informed that the board was willing to meet with him immediately to discuss the matter.

Informed of the willingness of the board of education to meet and discuss the proposition, Cook said Mayor Radel had said the matter would be discussed with the corporation counsel and he would contact the board of education or President Herzog.

Until noon today, Cook said, there had been no response from the mayor and the board of education had not been contacted.

The statement of Mayor Radel yesterday was in reply to a statement of the Kingston Teachers Federation citing the lack of compromise on the proposed building of a new school.

Opposition to use of Dietz stadium area for a school has been expressed by Mayor Radel who yesterday in a statement said:

"Frankly, I am not anxious to give away city-owned property, even if the law permits it, unless the rights and needs of the city are fully protected."

maintenance workers would have had to join the union.

The Authority told Council 50 that State Civil Service Law did not authorize discharge of any employe for failure to join or pay dues to a union. The Authority did say it would deduct union dues from wages of employes who made written request.

Jean Couturier, executive director of Council 50, said the union was willing to hold an election, "supervised by an outside, impartial committee mutually agreeable to both the Council and Thruway.

The Council holds a union-shop contract with the New Jersey Turnpike Authority and the Triboro Bridge Authority, both covering collectors and maintenance men.

Serving in Florida

Robert J. Benkert, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Marie Brundage of 370 South Wall Street, Kingston, is serving with Helicopter Training Group at the Ellyson Field Naval Auxiliary Landing Field, Pensacola, Fla.

He reported to Pensacola October 19 from the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill.

Before entering the Navy in June 1959, Benkert attended Kingston High School.

The Rev. Samuel Read Hall conducted the first recognized teachers' training school in the U.S. near Concord, Vt., in 1823.

$1¼ Billion Loss

11,500 Lost Lives During 1958 Fires

BOSTON (AP)—Nearly two million fires cost the United States some 11,500 lives, 1¼ billion dollars in money loss and a new high in the destruction of homes in 1958, the National Fire Protection Assn., reported today.

The over-all property loss was a little less than that of the year before. The association noted the approximate 1,994,000 fires logged represented a reduction of 32,000 from 1957 and a decline of $1,100,000 in losses.

But, while total losses were checked slightly, the report said, "more American homes went up in smoke than ever before in history."

The record shows fire destroyed or damaged 558,000 dwellings in 1958, causing a loss of about 309 million dollars. These totals which are new highs, represent an increase of 28,000 in dwelling house fires and nearly 33 million dollars loss to home owners over the previous year.

The main causes of fires in buildings in 1958 were defective heating and cooking equipment, and careless smoking.

New Attendance Record Seen for 1959 Kapers Show

Attendance at the Kingston Kiwanis Club's "Kiwanis Kapers" presented at the Kingston High School auditorium the last three nights probably broke all records for Kiwanis shows in the city, according to Chester A. Baltz, vice president and general chairman of the show committee.

Baltz estimated that approximately 850 persons attended the show last night, and he said "it was very successful." Proceeds of the show will go towards the Kiwanis Club scholarship and welfare funds.

Can Can Big Hit

The outstanding hit of the show was the famous Can Can dance in which eight men and eight women appeared in exceptionally beautiful red and yellow costumes, according to a club spokesman.

Another part of the show, which drew loud and continuous applause from the audience was the performance of Tony Bell and John Wilkie, who appeared as Catherine and Arthur Murray.

The Arthur Murray studio scene proved an outstanding feature with the crowd.

Many new voices were heard in this year's show, which was presented in the high school auditorium Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

The theme of this year's show was based on a visit by the club members to Paris where members attended a convention. Elmer A. Rylance is president of the local club.

Old Coin

"Eagle" was for many years the popular name of a ten-dollar gold coin in the United States. First coined in 1795, it was discontinued in 1934.

Only one-fifth of the land area of Massachusetts is used for farming and three-fourths of this is used to grow hay.

75,000 More Are Eligible to Vote In State Tuesday

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — More New Yorkers are eligible to vote in the Nov. 3 off-year election than in any previous election except for a president, a preliminary survey indicated today.

The increase in registration does not necessarily reflect interest in the balloting next Tuesday on nine proposed amendments to the Constitution and on mayors, eleven legislative vacancies and judges.

Growth and PPR

The reasons for the high registration are the normal population growth and the spread of permanent personal registration. Under PPR, voters do not have to register for each election. Their names remain on the lists.

Unofficial figures compiled in an Associated Press survey showed today that approximately 6,835,000 persons are eligible to vote. This is 75,000 more than for the 1958 balloting in which Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller defeated Democratic Averell Harriman for governor.

'52 All-Time High

The all-time high registration of 7,841,613 was recorded in 1952 when Dwight D. Eisenhower first contested Adlai E. Stevenson. When they met again in 1956, the registration was 7,715,154.

Most of the gain in registration was recorded in New York City, where the total climbed a quarter of a million to 2,802,154.

New York City has PPR and there is sharp interest in one of the constitutional amendments, proposing authority for the city to exceed its debt limit by 500 million dollars for school construction.

Voting on all the amendments will be statewide.

The total vote in an off-year election generally has been about 15 per cent less than the registration. But the spread may be larger under PPR because many of those registered may not vote this year. PPR is in effect in the state's most populous counties, including Erie, Monroe, Nassau, Westchester, Suffolk and Onondaga.

Big Gotham Gains

Registration dropped slightly in most counties but the loss was offset by the big gains in New York City's five counties and by increases of 16,000 in Suffolk, 10,000 in Onondaga, 7,000 in Erie and 2,000 in Monroe.

Nassau County registration declined 30,000 to 560,764. Nassau has PPR.

Other counties with small increases included Clinton, Essex, Greene, Montgomery, Oneida, Ontario, Rockland, Ulster and Warren counties.

Three Are Hurt Near Saugerties

Three persons were taken to Benedictine Hospital Wednesday afternoon, after a two-car collision which occurred on Route 9W one mile south of Saugerties at Barclay Heights, according to Kingston State Police.

Sergeant R. L. Keating stated the cars were operated by Robert Benson, 53, of New Paltz, and Theodore Greenwood, 57, of Newburgh. According to a report made by Trooper Henry Ganss, who investigated, Benson was traveling south on Route 9W and started to reduce the speed of his car when it was rammed in the rear by Greenwood's automobile.

Troopers said three of Benson's teeth were knocked out. Mrs. Catherine Benson, 47, of New Paltz, was treated at the hospital for shock. Eveline Andreef, of 210 Elk Street, Albany, a passenger in Benson's car, was treated at the hospital for shock and she was admitted for X-ray. Troopers said she suffered possible fractures.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined moderately in active trading early this afternoon. American Motors and Studebaker-Packard backed away from recent wide gains.

Losses of most key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

American Motors was down about a point and Studebaker-Packard common dropped about 2. The two stocks were traded hectically Wednesday as they reached a kind of climax in their daily drive to ne whighs.

Steels dropped slightly as further steps on a Taft-Hartley injunction awaited adjudication by the U.S. Supreme Court next week at the earliest. Rails also were off on balance.

Rubbers, most aircrafts and some of the electronics posted gains.

Coppers and oils were down. Chemicals, airlines and tobaccos were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 40 cents to $223.70 with the industrials off 80 cents, the rails off 80 cents and the utilities up 10 cents.

Corporate bonds were mixed.

U.S. government bonds drifted to the downside.

JOIN STAFF AT CP CENTER—Two new staff members joined the Kingston Cerebral Palsy Center staff in the Speech-Hearing Department, it was announced today. They are Mrs. Helene Berliner, (left) a Heidelberg University graduate with an MA Degree, and Miss Diana Best, a Brooklyn College graduate with a BS Degree in speech and hearing. (Freeman photo).

Cerebral Palsy Reports on Drive, Telethon Slated

The Cerebral Palsy fund campaign started in May, exceeded its goal, according to a report presented at the quarterly board of directors meeting Thursday at the CP Center.

The report listed total contributions at $23,390.03, the goal was $23,000.

Tells of Telethon

Mrs. S. Lee Boyd, field director of Community Services of the New York State Cerebral Palsy Association was the speaker at the quarterly meeting.

Mrs. Boyd outlined the telethon program to be televised in the Albany area for the benefit of Cerebral Palsy on January 16 and 17. Since several well-known and popular television celebrities are to appear on the program the Board, with Dr. Henry L. Bibby, president, presiding, felt that the program would benefit the Ulster County Association educationally as well as from the financial standpoint, and voted to take an active part in the telethon.

Mrs. Telford Graham of Woodstock was appointed chairman of the telethon committee.

In appreciation for her years of service to the association as town chairman for New Paltz, Mrs. Helen Hoffman was awarded a plaque by the board.

The annual fund drive report listed town chairmen and the amounts reported from each community as follows:

List Chairmen

Esopus, Mrs. Martin Oberkirch $969.89; Hurley, George Miller $311.05; Town of Kingston, Mrs. James Tyler $38; Lloyd, William A. Gruner $465.20; Marbletown, Mrs. Isaac Graham $411.02; Marlboro, Mrs. Harry O'Brein and Mrs. Aurigemma $146.90; New Paltz, Robert Reid $1,064.50; Olive $29; Plattekill $8; Rochester $10; Rosendale, Louis Muenkel $5; Saugerties, Norman Nitschke $787.43; Shandaken $66.50; Shawangunk $10; Ulster, Mrs. Raymond Davis, Mrs. Norman Hammond, and Mrs. Gerald Woodvine $1,397.81; Woodstock, Mrs. Telford Graham and Charles Goodrich $884.03, and Wawarsing $25.

From Greene County, Mrs. Perry Legg reported $133.10.

The total for Ulster County was $6,797.43; City of Kingston $6,370.15, and special contributions totaled $10,222.45.

Since the opening of the Cerebral Palsy Center it has been the hope of Mrs. Charlotte Peck, director, to have a nursery school as a supplement to the regular therapy of the young children. Such a program, she felt, would give them the socialization so necessary to their well rounded growth and progress.

This summer, with Mrs. Eve Oskay as teacher, the nursery class was organized and has proved so successful that it is being continued and will become a regular part of the Center's program she said.

Added to Staff

Two new speech therapists, Miss Diana Best and Mrs. Helene Berliner have been employed to fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Mrs. Mary Caughey and Miss Sheila Ochs. Mrs. Caughey left the Center to take a position with the Board of Cooperative Services, and Miss Ochs to become the bride of David Goldman of New York City.

From Mrs. Peck's report the board learned that five of the children were able to attend summer camps for the handicapped. This was made possible through state aid and scholarships given by the Center's Mothers Club and Kingston Kiwanis Club.

Captain Edward "Yank" Albrecht worked throughout the summer building new and repairing and repainting old equipment, it was reported.

Training Assembly Held by Hi-Yers On Government

A Youth and Government Assembly was held here Wednesday night by four Hi-Y Clubs to train for major projects of the type scheduled for November and December.

The four units participating in the program at Ulster County Court House, Wall Street, were Hi-Y Felia, Abend Star Hi-Y, Bookwalter Hi-Y, and Excelsior Hi-Y.

Attorney S. James Matthews briefed the groups in the County Court room on how to prepare four bills they are to propose, and Attorney Louis DiDonna of the state attorney general's office, and Frank Rebollo, youth secretary assisted in conducting the assembly according to parliamentary procedure.

The future assembly programs are on November 11 at Goshen and December 11, 12 and 13 at the State Capitol in Albany.

The four bills call for:

Amending the Conservation Law to establish a Civilian Conservation Corps within the Division of Lands and Forests. Introduced by Patricia Nash of Abend Star Hi-Y.

Requiring persons attaining the age of 18 years to obtain a state approved identification card for purchasing alcoholic beverages. Introduced by Annita Gianuzzi, Filia Hi-Y.

Creating work camps for habitual offenders. Introduced by Thomas Dunham of Bookwalter Hi-Y.

Amending the motor vehicle and traffic law. Introduced by Robert Whiston, Excelsior Hi-Y.

James Rundle of Bookwalter Hi-Y acted as lieutenant governor; Carmella Fasano, Filia Hi-Y as secretary of state.

Advisers were Dale Natoli, David Ebel and Adalaide Walters.

Guests at the assembly sponsored by the YMCA, a member agency of the Kingston Area Community Chest, were students from Onteora High School, Saugerties High School and Kingston High School.

DeMarco, Figure At Crime Parley, Has Heart Attack

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the 22 defendants on trial in federal court for alleged conspiracy concerning the Apalachin underworld convention has suffered a heart attack, it was reported at the opening of today's session.

John A. DeMarco, 59, of Shaker Heights, Ohio, suffered the attack Wednesday night in the Statler Hotel. DeMarco, who has been at liberty in bail, was taken to St. Clare's Hospital.

DeMarco was the second of the original 23 defendants to suffer a heart ailment. Joseph (Joe Bananas) Bonanno, 54, of Tucson, Ariz., won a severance of trial last Monday because of a heart condition.

A jury of eight men and four women was completed Wednesday to try the defendants on charges of conspiring to withhold information as to the purpose of the Apalachin gathering and what transpired.

Joseph Barbara Sr., who was host to the some 60 persons at his Apalachin estate two years ago, since has died of a heart attack.

Paintings Bring $167,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty-seven works of the late Mexican painter Diego Rivera were sold at auction at the Parke-Bernet Galleries Wednesday night for a total of $167,000.

Dutchess Holding Two Youths for Quiz by Police

Two South Atlanta, Ga., youths who were found sleeping in an automobile off Route 9 near Hyde Park at 5 a. m. Wednesday, were in the Dutchess County jail today awaiting questioning by police from Westport, Conn.

Rhinebeck State Police Sergeant Walter Donegan told The Freeman that Trooper E. J. Anderson arrested David Edward Schulz, 25, and Frank Stokes, 19, both of South Atlanta, Ga., on disorderly conduct charges after they were found asleep in an automobile.

Sergeant Donegan said Southport, Conn. authorities want to question the pair about a number of articles found in their automobile.

Schulz pleaded guilty before Town of Hyde Park Justice of the Peace Hulet Silvernale, and he was sentenced to jail for 15 days. Stokes pleaded innocent and Judge Silvernale remanded him to jail in lieu of $200 bail pending a hearing Thursday, Nov. 5 at 7 p. m.

Karen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Whritenor of Garden Court, was three years old Monday, Oct. 26, and was honored at a party that day at her parents home. Guests included Deborah Delmege, Cathy Mach, Kathy Baker, William Buck Jr., Michelle Winter, Mark Sandine, Glenn Franz and Karen's brother James.

Priscilla Mathews Given Surprise Party

Priscilla Mathews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mathews of Austin Avenue, Dutch Settlement, who was looking forward to celebrating her 16th birthday Monday, was surprised Sunday when her friends from Schenectady arrived to honor her at a party. They included the Misses Vivian and Susan McDougall and Elizabeth Getz, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDougall and sons Douglas and Charles. Also present were Priscilla's sisters and brother, Cynthia, Kathy, Anita and James.

Mrs. Jim DeStasio of Overbaugh Street, South, will be celebrating her birthday Saturday.

Area Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. John Jorgenson of Spaulding Lane entertained Saturday evening in honor of his two cousins, Mrs. Larry Martin and Mrs. Hiram Lasher of Milsboro, Del., who are visiting with cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Decker at their home in Katsbaan. Guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Jorgenson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Luhrs, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Swart, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Modjeska, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tonnesen, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dederick, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scheffel and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Decker.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Vozdik of Simmons' Drive spent Sunday in Williamstown, Mass., where they visited the many art galleries for which the town is noted.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Levintan of Village Drive, Kings Village, had as their guests the past weekend the Misses Marie and Helen Malone and Mrs. Mabel Dunne of Brooklyn and Mrs. Joseph Crynne of Clifton, N. J. This was a reunion celebration for Mrs. Levintan and her former classmates of high school days.

Raymond Bernier, who is with the U. S. Navy stationed at Norfolk, Va., is now spending a 15-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bernier at their home on Stevens Court, Kings Village.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dobbin and children of Peach Lane, Windemere Heights were weekend guests of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dobbin at their home in the Bronx.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maday of Stevens Court, Kings Village, had as their Sunday guests his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Maday of East Paterson, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gori of Cherry Lane, Windemere Heights, entertained Mrs. Gori's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Pezzoni of the Bronx over the weekend.

Mrs. Silas VanEtten and daughter, Mrs. John Jorgenson of Spaulding Lane went to Oneida one day last week to visit with Mrs. VanEtten's three sisters and their families, Miss Mary Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Agne.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clawson of Edgewood Drive, Windemere Heights, have as their guests this week Mrs. Clawson's mother, Mrs. Vivian Wagner, and her grandmother, Mrs. Truman Wagner of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Pauline Panchack of he Flatbush Road is reported ill at her home.

The super highways already in use—the toll roads and limited access turnpikes—have a fine safety record. Although this seems astonishing because legal speeds are higher on the super roads, they have advantages in closer police supervision, elimination of dangerous intersections and cross-roads, and absence of billboards and other distractions that clutter many roads and divert attention of drivers.

Joke to Maria

Soprano Brushes Off Bomb Scare

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A bomb hoax interrupted a Maria Callas concert for 40 minutes Wednesday night but the tempestuous soprano brushed it off as "ridiculous."

Former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman were among the 3,573 persons in Midland Theater when Missouri's Gov. James T. Blair stepped on stage after Miss Callas' first number and announced: "Ladies and gentlemen, the management has received a call which indicates danger for this audience, so we are asking you to leave this building for a half hour."

The audience calmly walked out, taking 10 minutes to clear the building, while police swarmed through the downtown theater.

Miss Callas remained in her dressing room during the search and joked about the scare. The concert was finished without incident after the audience returned.

At a reception afterward, a reporter asked Miss Callas what she thought about the incident.

"Please," she said, smiling radiantly and crossing her hands under her chin. "Let's not discuss it."

The orchestra was playing an overture when a man called the theater box office and police headquarters. He told the police dispatcher: "There's a bomb planted in the orchestra pit at the Midland Theater that's set to go off at 9:30."

Jersey Driver Is Held After Crash Near Lake Katrine

A 29-year-old Landersville, N. J. motorist was charged with following another vehicle too close after his car crashed into the rear of a 1959 sedan on Route 9W near Lake Katrine early today.

State Trooper H. S. Rhodes of the Kingston sub-station said Robert A. Gardengli, was summoned to appear before Justice of the Peace Robert Davis, Lake Katrine.

Troopers George Gaines and Richard Ryan, who investigated the collision identified the other driver as Carsten Martensen, 51, Route 1, Kingston. Rhodes said Martensen was slowing his 1959 sedan on Route 9W to make a right turn when the Gardengli vehicle smashed into the rear of his car.

Both vehicles were damaged but no injuries were reported.

May Boost Prices

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The Syracuse and Oswego Motor Lines Inc. had Public Service Commission approval today to increase prices for its books of 10-trip commuter tickets.

The company will do this by decreasing the discount it has been giving commuters on regular, one-way fares. These fares range from 15 cents to $1.32.

The commuter discount will be cut Nov. 8 to a range of 14 per cent to 31 per cent. It has been 28 per cent to 35 per cent.

The basic cash fare will not be changed.

The commission reported that, "because of a continued downward trend," it expected that the higher commuter fares would add only $250 to the company's revenues in the next year.

The PSC gave its approval Wednesday.

Bethlehem Due To Give Report On Strike Effects

NEW YORK, (AP)—Bethlehem Steel Corp. today will just about wind up the parade of big steel firms reporting on how badly they have been hit by the steel strike.

The nation's second largest steel company will issue its third quarter earnings statement shortly after close of the New York Stock Exchange at 3:30 p.m.

For all but two of the weeks covered by the report, the gates were closed on Bethlehem's plants and pickets stood guard outside those gates.

As with other major companies completely shut down by the strike, Bethlehem is expected to report a loss for the third quarter.

Until the strike, Bethlehem was doing very well. For the first half of this year it earned $73,591,528. That set an all-time record for any six months.

The following are net third-quarter losses reported by other companies so far, compared with 1958 net income for the corresponding quarter: U.S. Steel, $31,135,136 compared with $74,922,924; Republic Steel, $24,861,406 compared with $15,184,641; Youngstown Sheet, $7,149,660 compared with $3,641,906.

Eisenhower Has No New Word on Five in Peiping

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says he has no new information about whether Red China will release five Americans it holds as prisoners.

He gave that answer to a news conference question Wednesday.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khruschev promised Eisenhower at their Camp David conference last month that he would take up the problem with Red Chinese leaders.

Khrushchev is understood to have followed through on his promise, but evidently the Chinese Communists have refused to turn the men loose.

The imprisoned Americans are Robert Ezra McCann, Pasadena, Calif.; John Thomas Downey, New Britain, Conn.; Richard George Fecteau, Lynn, Mass.; Hugh Francis Redmond Jr., Yonkers, N. Y., and Roman Catholic Bishop James Edward Walsh, Cumberland, Md.

Alcoa, USW Agree To Extend Contract

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—The Aluminum Co. of America and the United Steelworkers have agreed to extend their contract indefinitely, it was learned by The Associated Press.

It was also learned Wednesday night that the USW is considering plans to extend contracts with the Kaiser Aluminum and Reynolds Metals companies similar to the agreement with Alcoa.

The USW reportedly has decided to extend the contract with Alcoa indefinitely with a provision that any contract signed will be retroactive to Aug. 1. Neither Alcoa nor USW officials would comment on the disclosure.

Alcoa's contract with the steelworkers expired last July 31. At that time, both sides agreed to extend the contract to Nov. 1 or 30 days after the end of the basic steel strike, whichever came first.

Vermont Objects To Closing of Allen AF Base

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — An Air Force announcement that the Ethan Allen Air Force Base will be deactivated next March touched off a stream of protests in Vermont.

Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt) said he will take his objections to Wednesday night's Air Force announcement directly to President Eisenhower.

Scores Integrity

And Aiken also asserted the Air Force "did not tell us the truth in September" when a service spokesman was quoted as saying the Ethan Allen base was on a deactivation program for two years in the future.

"If we don't have an Air Force with integrity, we don't have anything," Aiken said in a telephone interview with The Rutland Herald.

Also in Washington, Sen. Winston L. Prouty (R-Vt) sent a telegram to Air Force Secretary Douglas saying the decision "reverses previous Air Force assurances without any consultation with, or detailed explanation to the Vermont congressional delegation."

Gov. Robert T. Stafford (R) said he was "shocked and surprised" at the announcement. He said the base not only is economically important to Vermont, but also to the defense of the Northeast.

Two Charge Waste

The mayors of Vermont's two largest cities, meanwhile, said they didn't believe the announcement of the closing had any connection with their publicly voiced criticisms of the Air Force only a week ago.

The two mayors, James E. Fitzpatrick of Burlington and Dan J. Healy of Rutland, charged the Air Force with wasting public money by transporting them to Panama City, Fla., for a missile demonstration. They said they didn't see anything, and returned home at their own expense before the demonstration was over.

About 1,200 personnel are at the base, including 173 civil service workers.

RED ASTRONAUT—A Russian pilot has contacts for meters taped to his body before he dons space suit to "go up" in an altitude chamber. This is one of the first photos released by the Russians showing steps in training a prospective spaceman. Location of the training center was not given.

Two Escape Injury

ROME, N. Y. (AP) — A pilot landed an Air Force jet fighter on the rims of its wheels at 150 miles an hour Wednesday. The tires had blown out and dropped off during takeoff.

The two men aboard the Voodoo jet were not injured and the plane was not damaged.

The tires blew out as 1st Lt. Robert W. Border of Portland, Ore., headed the plane down the runway at Griffiss Air Force Base for takeoff. He released the plane's parachute to slow down, but then realized there was not enough runway space left. He detached the parachute and gunned the ship into the air.

After an hour of circling, Capt. John A. Graff of Chula Vista, Calif., took over the controls from the rear cockpit and landed the craft.

Double Jeopardy Claim Rejected By State Court

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A State Supreme Court justice has rejected a defense claim of double jeopardy for one of six youths who were acquitted of murder charges but re-indicted on lesser charges.

Justice Carlyon A. Fisher Wednesday dismissed an application for a writ of habeas corpus which would have freed one of the youths, 19-year-old Vincent Santangelo. The case was viewed as a test for the others.

An appeal of the dismissal was expected.

The youths were found innocent last July of a charge of first-degree murder in the shooting of George A. Simon, 48, a postal clerk. Simon was shot by intruders at his home last New Year's Eve. He died six days later.

The six were indicted again, shortly after the acquittal, this time on charges of first-degree burglary and attempted first-degree robbery.

Their attorneys maintained the second indictment amounted to double jeopardy because the new charges were based on the facts of the murder charges.

The youths are Vincent Ciffa, Mario Gugino and Daniel J. DiLapo, all 18; Vincent Zagarrigo, 19; Charles Barone, 23, and Santangelo.

State Puts Off Bid Opening on Highway Plans

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A bid opening scheduled for today on an estimated $14,950,000 in highway construction has been postponed until next month because of fiscal problems in the federal highway program.

J. Burch McMorran, state public works superintendent, postponed the bid opening Wednesday and reset it for Nov. 19 when other highway bids are scheduled to be opened.

McMorran said the postponement would not affect the state's overall highway program. Completion dates on the projects will remain the same, McMorran said.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, McMorran said, had limited contract awards while federal funds for the highway program built up.

He said the postponement would allow the state to await its next federal allocation, due Nov. 1.

Funds appropriated by Congress for the federal road program this year "are not sufficient to support the letting of contracts as planned," McMorran said.

The highway program is supported by revenues from the federal gasoline tax and other highway-use taxes. Congress increased the gasoline tax by a penny a gallon this month because funds were running out. However, state allocations were cut back. New York's share was dropped from 180 million dollars to 143 million.

Central Is Blocked For Time on Boost

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The Public Service Commission blocked today a New York Central Railroad plan to increase commuter and school fares on its Albany-Chatham line.

The commission said it would hold a public hearing on the railroad's proposal. No date was set.

The railroad had planned to make the fare increases effective Sunday. The proposed new rates call for increases ranging from $1.03 to $1.89 on 46-trip tickets for school students. The cost of the tickets now ranges from $3.39 to $11.91.

The lowest commuter fares now range from 12.1 cents per ride to 42.5 cents. Under the new rates, the cost per ride would range from 27.2 cents to 85 cents.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's Halloween time again and the gobblins and witches will find many apples available at stores and roadside food stands.

All types of apples are in pentiful supply, the quality is excellent and prices are low.

The other trappings of Halloween and the harvest season also are available in adequate numbers. This includes pumpkins, gourds and Indian corn.

Along more substantial lines, best buys appear mainly in veal and pork. Several chains are running weekend specials in leg of veal, pork loin, hams and rib ends of pork. The low pork prices reflect large runs of hogs at livestock markets.

On the other hand, a tendency for prices of sirloin steak to strengthen is apparent in some sections. More uniform are gains of 2 to 6 cents a dozen in egg prices in virtually all areas.

Other items in which stores are running specials include fish sticks, ground beef, ducks, sirloin, chuck roast, steaks and chicken legs.

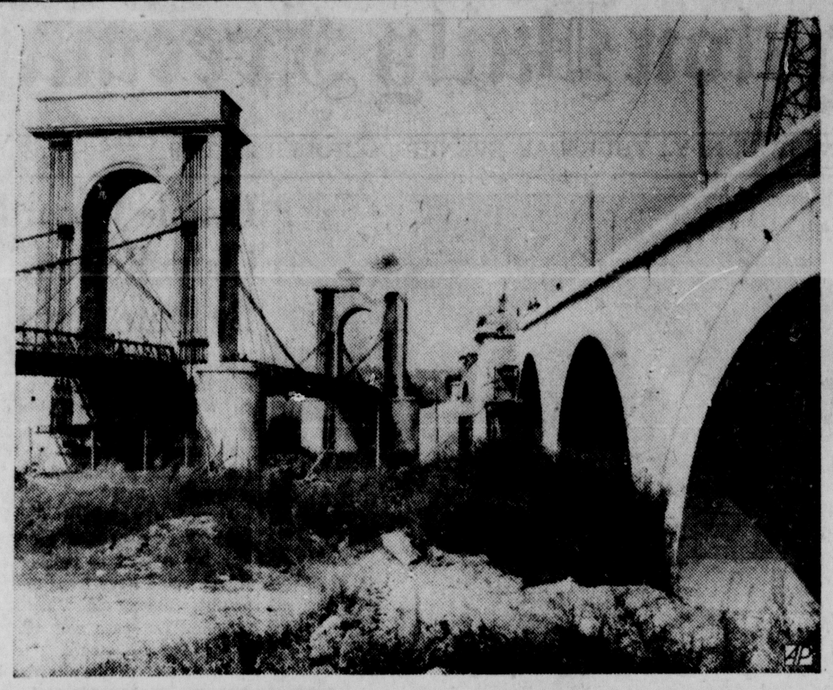

For the second straight week iceberg lettuce is cheap and is listed as among the best buys in the vefetable section. Potatoes and onions, although slightly higher priced than last week, are still excellent buys.

Most of the popular vegetables —cabbage, cauliflower, tomatoes, Idaho potatoes, brussel sprouts— are in the good buy list. On the expensive side are snap beans and egg plants.

The good buy list in fruits is quite colorful — oranges, lemons and limes.

Grapefruit, pears and emperor grapes also come cheap.

Difference between winter and summer temperatures in parts of central Alaska may be as much as 170 degrees Fahrenheit.

OLD AND THE NEW — The picturesque Pont d'Avignon, left, too old to handle modern traffic, has a modern counterpart rising by its side. Structures bridge the Rhone from Villeneuve to Avignon, the residence of popes in the fourteenth century.

Must Surface

Purpoises, which outswim most fish, can remain under water no longer than three minutes. They usually surface for breath every 30 to 45 seconds, even during sleep.

Industrial Salt

Industry uses salt in large quantities to produce soda ash which, in turn, is used in the manufacture of glass, soaps, production of non-ferrous metals and pulp paper.

Harris Tweed

Genuine Harris tweed "must be made from pure virgin wool produced in Scotland, spun, dyed and finished in the Outer Hebrides and handwoven by the islanders at their own homes."

Wagner Declares Defeat of No. 4 Would Hurt State

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The mayor of New York City says voter-approval of Amendment No. 4, permitting his city to borrow additional funds for school construction, will benefit the entire state.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner, speaking at a meeting of the West Side Democratic Committee here Wednesday night, said state prestige would drop if the amendment was defeated.

The amendment would permit New York City to exceed its debt limit by 500 million dollars by selling bonds.

"A drop in prestige means a drop in business," Wagner said. He said the loan would be repaid in real estate taxes from New York City. He denied that Upstate communities would eventually pay for New York City schools.

He said opponents of the amendment were "a group of real estate lobbyists. . .and the controller of the City of New York whose reasons I can't understand."

The mayor is conducting a statewide tour seeking support for the amendment.

Air Force Closing Six Eastern Bases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force plans to shut down three air defense fighter squadrons, two group headquarters and one Air Force base.

The move is in accordance with the changing composition of the Air Force, the service said Wednesday. It is increasing gradually the number of missile units.

The Ethan Allen Air Force Base at Winooski, Vt., and the 37th Fighter Interceptor Squadron operation at Burlington, Vt., Municipal Airport are to be closed next March.

The 86th Fighter Interceptor Squadron and the 79th Fighter Group Headquarters at the Youngstown, Ohio, Municipal Airport will be closed at the same time.

Late next summer, the 15th Fighter Interceptor Group Headquarters and the 47th Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Niagara Falls, N. Y., Municipal Airport will be shut down. The Bomarc anti-aircraft missile site now under construction there and the National Guard flying operations will be continued.

The Air Force said about 1,000 military personnel were at Ethan Allen. Some Air Force buildings at Burlington will be offered to the Air National Guard. Other military services will be canvassed to see if they need the rest of the facilities at Burlington and Ethan Allen, the Air Force said.

The Air Force announced recently a manpower cut of about 15,000 during the current fiscal year, over and above the 5,000-man reduction scheduled earlier.

By economies in manpower, the Air Force said, it hopes to have more money to spend on missiles and other new equipment.

Appellate Denies Check of Minutes

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — A motion by Joseph N. Bolletieri, Utica streets superintendent, to examine the minutes of a special grand jury has been denied by the Appellate Division, Fourth Department.

Bolletieri was indicted by the grand jury on first-degree grand larceny charges in the alleged misappropriation of building supplies in 1957.

The grand jury conducted a probe of vice, gambling and graft in Utica this year.

Attorneys for the superintendent sought to inspect the minutes of the grand jury report, claiming the indictment was based on testimony of an accomplice. Under law, such testimony must be corroborated by other evidence.

The court, in its decision Wednesday, issued no memorandum.

Life expectancy at birth in the United States is expected to be just over 74 years by the year 2000.

VILLAGE OF ROSENDALE
ULSTER COUNTY
NEW YORK
WATER (SERIAL) BONDS, 1959
NOTICE OF BOND SALE

Sealed proposals will be received and considered by the undersigned Village Treasurer of the Village of Rosendale, Ulster County, New York, at the Village Hall, at the Firehouse, in said Village, (P. O. Address: Rosendale, New York), at 2:00 o'clock P. M., Eastern Standard Time, on the 5th day of November, 1959, at which time and place the bids will be opened, for the purchase at not less than par and accrued interest of $55,000 Water (Serial) Bonds, 1959, of said Village, of the denomination of $1,000 each, dated August 1, 1959, maturing $2,000 on August 1 in each of the years 1960 to 1985, both inclusive, and $3,000 on August 1, 1986, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on February 1 and August 1. Principal and interest of said bonds are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at Bank of Orange County, in Rosendale, New York. Bonds will be in bearer form with coupons attached and may be converted into fully registered bonds, and will be valid and legally binding general obligations of said Village, all the taxable real property within which will be subject to the levy of ad valorem taxes to pay said bonds and interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

The State Constitution requires the Village to pledge its faith and credit for the payment of the principal of the bonds and the interest thereon and to make annual appropriations for the amounts required for the payment of such interest and the redemption of such bonds. The State Constitution also provides that if at any time the appropriating authorities fail to make the required appropriations for the annual debt service on the bonds and certain other obligations of the Village, a sufficient sum shall be set apart from the first revenues thereafter received and shall be applied for such purposes; also, that the fiscal officer of the Village may be required to set apart and apply such revenues as aforesaid at the suit of any holder of such obligations.

Each bid must be for all of said $55,000 bonds and state a single rate of interest therefor. Unless all bids are rejected, the award will be made to the bidder complying with the terms of sale and offering to purchase said bonds at the lowest rate of interest, not exceeding the rate above specified, stated in a multiple of one-quarter or one-tenth of one per centum per annum, without reference to premium, provided, however, that if two or more bidders offer to purchase said bonds at the same lowest rate of interest, then such award will be made to the bidder offering the highest premium. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids and any bid not complying with this Notice of Sale will be rejected. Each bid must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the undersigned Village Treasurer and should be marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds" and must be accompanied with a certified or cashier's check drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company to the order of said Village of Rosendale, New York, for $1,100 as a good faith deposit to secure the Village against any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. No interest will be allowed on the amount of the good faith deposit. Said bonds are issued pursuant to the Constitution and statutes of the State of New York, including among others, the Village Law and the Local Finance Law, for the construction of improvements to the water system of said Village.

In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds, the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be taxable by the terms of any Federal income tax law, the successful bidder may, at his election, be relieved of his obligations under the contract to purchase the bonds, and in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

Said bonds will be delivered at New York, New York, or at such other place as may be agreed with the purchaser about November 30, 1959.

The approving opinion of Messrs. Vandewater, Sykes, Heckler & Galloway, Attorneys of New York City, will be furnished to the purchaser without cost. There will also be furnished the usual closing certificates, dated as of the date of delivery of and payment for the bonds, including a statement that there is no litigation pending, or, to the knowledge of the signers thereof, threatened, affecting the validity of the bonds.

The population of the Village, as shown by the 1950 U. S. Census, is 881. The estimated population in 1958 is 1,028. The Debt Statement to be filed pursuant to Section 109.00 of the Local Finance Law in connection with the sale of the bonds herein described, prepared as of October 15, 1959, will show the average full valuation of real estate subject to taxation by the Village to be $3,426,545.00, its debt limit to be $239,858.15 and its total net indebtedness subject to the debt limit to be $27,000.00. Bond anticipation notes have not been issued heretofore in anticipation of the sale of such bonds. The indebtedness to be evidenced by such bonds will not increase such net indebtedness. A detailed report of essential facts will be furnished to any interested bidder upon request.

Dated: Rosendale, New York

GE to Layoff 800

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Eight hundred workers in the General Electric transformer plant will be laid off beginning the end of this week because of the steel strike, a company spokesman said.

He said Wednesday night some layoffs will be for three days and others for indefinite periods.

General Electric Co. employs some 10,000 persons in its transformer, chemical and ordnance plants in Pittsfield. The layoffs will affect only transformer department employes.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE

WHEREAS, Section 15 of the Highway Law provides that the County Superintendent of Highways with the consent of the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors may temporarily close any portion of a County Road in such County to a vehicle with a gross weight of over Four (4) tons, when in his opinion such road or highway would be materially injured by the operation of such vehicle thereon, and

WHEREAS, public interest demands that the hereinafter described road be kept safe and passable for all vehicular traffic, therefore by authority provided for under Section 15 of the Highway Law, I, Roland H. Green, County Superintendent of Highways of the County of Ulster do hereby temporarily close such portion of the County Highway in the Town of Plattekill and known as Sylva-New Hurley, County Road No. 96, from State Route No 32 at Sylva to State Route No. 208 at New Hurley, a distance of 2 miles;

Also, in the Town of Plattekill, the Plains Road, County Road No. 112 from County Road No. 96 northerly to State Route No. 208, a distance of .5 of a mile, to any and all vehicles with a gross weight of over Four (4) tons.

ROLAND H. GREEN
County Superintendent of Highways

Dated at Kingston, New York, this 27th day of October, 1959.

STATE OF NEW YORK
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Albany, October 1, 1959

Pursuant to the provisions of section seventy-two of the Election Law, the following Proposed Amendments to the State Constitution Numbers One to Nine, inclusive, will be submitted to the voters of the State for approval or disapproval, at the General Election on November third, nineteen hundred fifty-nine.

CAROLINE K. SIMON,
Secretary of State.

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number One

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to establish a separate Department of Motor Vehicles in the state government in place of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles which is now part of the Department of Taxation and Finance.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number One

Shall the proposed amendment to section two of article five of the constitution, in relation to establishing a department of motor vehicles in the state government, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Two

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to permit not more than three hundred acres of state forest preserve land to be used for the construction and maintenance of an interstate route highway (so-called Northway) from a point in the vicinity of Glens Falls to the vicinity of Keesville* and Plattsburg*.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Two

Shall the proposed amendment to section one of article fourteen of the constitution, in relation to interstate route highway on forest preserve lands, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Three

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to provide that any public officer who, upon being called before a grand jury to testify concerning the conduct of or the performance of his official duties in his present office or of any public office held by him within five years prior to such call, refuses to sign a waiver of immunity against subsequent criminal prosecution, or to answer any relevant question pertaining to such matters before such grand jury, shall by virtue of such refusal, be disqualified from holding any other public office for a period of five years from the date of such refusal, and shall be removed from his present office by the appropriate authority or shall forfeit his present office at the suit of the attorney general.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Three

Shall the proposed amendment to section six of article one of the constitution, in relation to refusal of public officials to sign waiver of immunity and give testimony as to offices previously held, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Four

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to exclude, subject to such limitations as the legislature may prescribe, from the limitation on the debt-incurring power of the city of New York, the aggregate of indebtedness, not exceeding the sum of $500,000,000, initially contracted by it after January 1, 1960, for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, alteration and conversion of, the construction of additions to, and the acquisition of land or rights in land for, public school buildings within such city.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Four

Shall the proposed amendment to section seven of article eight of the constitution, in relation to excluding from the limitation on the debt-incurring power of the city of New York certain indebtedness not exceeding five hundred million dollars for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, alteration and conversion of, the construction of additions to, and the acquisition of land or rights in land for, public school buildings within such city, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Five

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to authorize the legislature to provide that there shall be no primary election held to nominate candidates for public office or to elect persons to party positions in any unit of representation of the state when there is no contest therefor.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Five

Shall the proposed amendment to section one of article one of the constitution, in relation to uncontested primary elections, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Six

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to empower the Legislature to authorize by law the lease or transfer of the Barge Canal including its terminals and facilities to the federal government, upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may determine, for purposes of operation, improvement and inclusion in the national system of inland waterways.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Six

Shall the proposed amendment to article fifteen of the constitution, in relation to authorizing the lease or transfer to the federal government of the barge canal, consisting of the Erie, Oswego, Champlain, Cayuga and Seneca divisions and the barge canal terminals and facilities for purposes of operation, improvement and inclusion in the national system of inland waterways, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Seven

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to authorize a county, city or town to increase the pension benefits payable to retired members of a police department or fire department or to widows, dependent children or dependent parents of members or retired members of a police department or fire department.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Seven

Shall the proposed amendment to section one of article eight of the constitution, in relation to increase of pension benefits payable to retired members of a police department or fire department or to widows of members or retired members of a police department or fire department, be approved?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Eight

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to permit the Legislature in any law imposing a tax or taxes on, in respect to or measured by income, to define income by reference to the laws of the United States as they may be in effect from time to time, with such exceptions or modifications as the Legislature may prescribe.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Eight

Shall the proposed amendment to section twenty-two of article three of the constitution, in relation to the adoption of federal definitions of income for purposes of state personal income, unincorporated business and corporation taxation, be adopted?

Abstract of Proposed Amendment Number Nine

The purpose and effect of this proposed amendment is to authorize two or more municipal corporations, pursuant to law, to jointly provide any municipal facility, service, activity or undertaking which each of them has the power to provide separately, and to contract joint or several indebtedness for such undertaking in such manner and proportion as the legislature may provide by law, and to levy real estate or other authorized taxes or impose charges therefor.

Form of Submission of Proposed Amendment Number Nine

Shall the proposed amendment to section one of article eight of the constitution, in relation to the power of municipalities to contract indebtedness and levy taxes for joint municipal facilities, be adopted?

Castro Revives Tribunals, More Blood-Baths Seen

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's Cabinet early today ratified the revival of military tribunals which sent 555 of his enemies to execution before firing squads.

Fears of a new blood-bath grew with an estimated 200 persons already in jail awaiting investigation or trial as counterrevolutionaries, and unconfirmed reports circulating of more and more arrests daily.

Prime Minister Castro abolished the controversial military tribunals in July in favor of civilian courts. Though the latter had power to impose death for activities against the revolutionary regime, the heaviest sentences meted out were 30 years.

A power failure plunged most of the capital into darkness and fresh anxiety after the six-hour Cabinet session ended just before 2 a.m. The blackout was traced to an equipment failure, the American-owned Cuban Electric Co. said, adding there was no immediate indication of sabotage. The power went on again over most of the city after about two hours.

Foreign Minister Raul Roa told newsmen that the government would deliver its reply later today to the stiff U.S. protest against the rising anti-American campaign in Cuba and Castro's charges that the U.S. government had connived at flights over Cuba by anti-Castro exiles in the United States.

Mediator Feels End Is Near of Glass Plant Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Glass Container Manufacturers Institute and the American Flint Glass Workers Union considered counter proposals today in the 47-day-old strike of some 2,000 moldmakers across the nation.

"The counter proposals show continued progress in the negotiations," said federal mediator William Rose Wednesday after they were submitted. "I am optimistic that we are nearing an end in the strike."

Terms of the new proposals were not disclosed.

The strike began Sept. 13 when the moldmakers walked out in a dispute over arbitration procedure and wages. The strike has affected some 81 glass plants.

Industry wants to submit all grievances to binding arbitration. The union wants to hold grievances for discussion at new contract negotiations as was the practice in the past.

The union is seeking a five per cent hike while the industry has offered a three per cent pay boost. Under the old contract, moldmakers averaged $2.80 an hour.

Home Extension Service News

Council of Chairmen

Mrs. Charles Williams presided at the October 23 meeting of the Council of Unit Chairmen of the Ulster County Extension Service held in New Paltz. The members voted to compile a scrapbook for Miss Everice Parsons, former Home Demonstration agent who retired October 1 after 25 years of service in Ulster County.

Miss Hazel Steed of the Ulster County TB and Health Association addressed the group on program helps available through her organization.

Planning Parties

Miss Bernice M. Scott, recreation specialist from Cornell University, will meet with unit leaders of the Ulster County Home Extension Service, at the Municipal Auditorium at 10 a. m. November 4, for a training school on Planning Parties for Young Children. Miss Scott will discuss suitable games, favors, and refreshments for small youngsters.

Mushrooms

Mushrooms are a unique food. They are members of the fungus family; They grow under conditions contrary to the growth of most fruits and vegetables; and they are of both ancient and modern origin. Shoppers in the metropolitan New York area are fortunate in being able to purchase fresh mushrooms nearly all the year round, with supplies heaviest from October through May. Mushrooms lend themselves to a wide variety of uses, and so homemakers may become familiar with them through one of many different dishes.

Mushrooms were first grown in the United States around New York City and Long Island in the 1800's, when greenhouse gardeners grew them under benches on which flowers had been planted. In 1896 William Swayne of Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, built the first house to be used exclusively for growing mushrooms. Today Pennsylvania accounts for about 65 to 70 per cent of the 110,000,000 pounds of mushrooms produced annually. Other producing areas in the Northeast include the Hudson Valley in New York and areas near Boston.

Mushroom Culture

Mushrooms are one of the paradoxes in agriculture — they grow in darkness, not light; they are planted in fall and harvested in winter and spring; and low temperatures instead of summer heat are a necessity. To satisfy these requirements, most mushrooms are cultivated in specially constructed windowless houses where temperatue and humidity are carefully controlled. Most mushroom houses are not utilized during the hottest summer months, although about 10 per cent are air conditioned, which enables year round production. Some mushrooms are grown in caves where constant temperatures of approximately 56 degrees F. also make year around production possible.

Fresh mushrooms may be available in New York markets all year long but the period of heaviest supply is from October through May. June to September are the months when most mushroom houses are not used because of high outdoor temperatures and unfavorable growing conditions. This gives growers a chance to recondition mushroom beds before the fall planting of spawn. November and December were peak supply months for 1954-58, according to "New York City-Unloads of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables." A smaller second peak occurred in March and April.

Select quality mushrooms. Mushrooms are fresh and at their best when they are firm and white; have smooth, rounded tops or caps; and undersides which are smooth and close around stems. The outer surface of the mushroom cap gradually turns brown on exposure to air. A dark discolored mushroom with the underside of the cap open and the fins exposed is aged and past the best eating stage.

Mushroom size is not an indication of quality or maturity. Mushrooms of one-inch and three-inch diameters may be equally mature and tender. The cap of the mushroom is more tender than the stem, and so mushrooms with short stems are the choice selection.

Mushrooms are quick to prepare and versatile. Mushrooms need only to be rinsed well under cold water and snipped at the stem before they are ready to use. Peeling and soaking mushrooms are unnecessary.

Mushrooms make many dishes festive with their unique flavor and texture. One of the more popular uses of whole mushroom caps, fresh or canned, are kabobs. To prepare kabobs for broiling, thread cubes of meat, mushroom caps, and pieces of green pepper, tomato, onion, or potato onto a skewer. And whole mushroom caps may be stuffed with seasoned ground beef, chopped crab meat, chicken, shrimp, cheese, or deviled ham, and broiled. Canned mushroom buttons may be pickled and added to the hors d'oevres tray for an interesting touch.

Sliced canned or fresh mushrooms complement green vegetables, such as peas or beans. Or they may be sauted with chicken livers and served on rice for a main dish. Sliced mushrooms add interest to other main dishes such as beef stroganoff, meat sauce for spaghetti, and Spanish rice. Whole or sliced mushrooms may be used as a garnish for steaks, chops, and broiled fish.

Stems and pieces, the least costly canned form, or chopped fresh mushrooms may be added to poultry stuffings as well as to meat loaf, omelettes, and salads. They may also be added to gravy, barbecue sauce, hash or stew.

At the Markets

FRUITS—Both Eastern and Western apples are abundant with markets and roadside stands overflowing. Many varieties are available, including McIntosh, Cortland, Jonathan, Stayman, Golden Delicious, and Red Delicious. Apples will keep longer than most fruit and may be purchased in large quantity. October is the peak month for grape marketings with several varieties plentiful. Grapefruit, limes, avocados, bananas, Florida and California oranges, and pears are in good supply.

VEGETABLES — Look for smaller supplies of fall vegetables than usual. September weather was unfavorable for vegetable growth in many areas of the country and U. S. production is 8 per cent below average. There will be less cabbage, carrots, lettuce, tomatoes, cauliflower, and snap beans than last year, but more cucumbers, eggplant and green peas. Cooler weather of the past week will curtail local vegetable marketings but the warm weather of September and early October has extended the season for some nearby vegetables, particularly the greens—kale, collards, radishes, green onions, endive, and escarole are still available. Locally produced root crops—beets, turnips and parsnips will soon come on the market in large quantity. Potatoes, onions and cabbage continue seasonally in good supply on local markets. Brussels sprouts and cauliflower are available in moderate quantities, but quality is somewhat variable.

EGGS—Egg prices are lower again. Medium-sized eggs for week ending October 15 are 10 cents per dozen lower than the same week a year ago, according to the New York City Department of Markets. Medium eggs still are lower in cost per pound than large eggs.

FISH—Haddock, porgies, whiting, and small flounder are in good supply and reasonable in price.

MEAT—Meat prices continue to edge downward under the influence of stepped-up marketings. Pork marketings over the next six weeks will be about 10 percent greater than last year. Supplies of beef will also be up, but by a smaller margin—perhaps 5 per cent greater than last year. Prices for lamb, veal and broilers show a lower trend.

Port Ewen Youth To Collect for UNICEF Friday

Trick or treat for UNICEF will be carried out in Port Ewen Friday evening sponsored by the Church school of the Methodist Church.

This year more than 55 million children and mothers will be helped by the United Nations Children's Fund. This is more heart warming when one realizes that three out of four children live in areas where hunger and disease are widespread. UNICEF provides milk for under-nourished children. BCG vaccine to portect a child against TB, pennicilin to cure yaws, aureomycin to treat trachoma, suffone tablets to treat leprosy, and DDT and drugs to fight malaria. It helps establish village health centers where mothers learn simple preventive care to keep their children well, and helps to build a corps of trained workers dedicated to improving their community's and children's health.

Every penny, nickel, and dime dropped in a milk container with the orange and black UNICEF label carried by a Port Ewen child adds to the chance for survival of millions of needy children.

Those not contacted by the children but wishing to make a contribution may mail donation to Mrs. O. C. Maynard, 124 East Stout Avenue or to Mrs. Carl C. Caskey at the Methodist parsonage.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

This from the Kingston Freeman and Journal of Tuesday, July 1, 1919, "The parking place on John Street is now open to public use. Cars can be checked in the care of Joseph Schuler who is in charge."

Another item from same paper. "The Standard Oil Co. has started work of erecting the big tanks in which oil will be stored at their new plant in Ponckhockie. The company recently purchased about two acres of ground just off North Street, and have been busy filling in the swampy ground. It is expected that the company will erect a warehouse and a garage at the new site."

Often I have mentioned the long wait of cars during a holiday weekend for the ferryboats. This is from the July 8, 1919 issue. "A Kingston party of four who came from Poughkeepsie in an automobile Friday, expecting to take the 6:40 afternoon ferry fom Rhinecliff across the river to this city, were compelled to wait from that time to 10:30 o'clock at night before they could get on the Transport. They were the 109th auto in line and were the first party to get on board on the 10:40 trip, 17 autos following their car on the ferry. Several of the autos had children passengers, and the four hours' wait was a tedious one. The ferryboat made trips at intervals of 35 minutes each."

Running through the advertisements I find this one in the Classifieds. "Wanted—an experienced waitress and chambermaid. Wages $35. Oscar's Farm. Kidd's jitney passes place." From Real Estate for sale: "House, 6 rooms, barn, yard, woodshed. 29 Sycamore Street. Price $1,000."

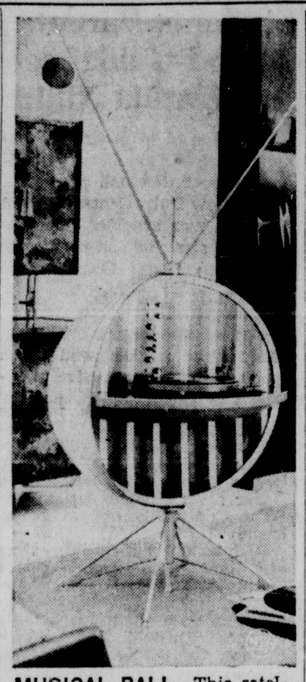

Kingston Point Park was a busy place on the July 4 weekend of 1919, and the trolleys were doing good business. It was six cents fare at the time, and all day long they were running four trolley cars, two on each line, and "even then there did not appear to be enough cars to handle the traffic at Kingston Point, and as every car that left the park for home was packed and jammed with passengers hanging on like flies wherever they could secure a toe hold and a hand clasp."

They further tell about our park that is no more, "by auto, by trolley and by boat came thousands to the park, and when at 8 o'clock President Samuel M. Watts of the common council started the municipal exercises the park was filled with a good natured happy throng. A display of fireworks followed the music and oratory. The display consisted mostly of aerial bombs shot high in the air and bursting scattered countless red, white and blue stars through the sky."

About the bath beach they wrote "it was also popular but owing to the fact that it was low tide all afternoon, there were not as many in bathing as was expected on such an extremely warm day."

Another item which may be interesting at this time due to election. (from above 1919 paper.) "Sunday was the 65th birthday of the Republican party, which took its name and completed its organization at Jackson, Mich., July 6, 1854." That makes it over a century old, about 105 years in 1959. No doubt election circulars of 1854 are in museums today.

MUSICAL BALL—This satellite-shaped item might be the hi-fi of the future. Designer Lester Beall of New York created the lightweight-metal ball. The front has been opened to show turntable and controls. There are no plans to place it in production.

Modena

MODENA — The October meeting of the Modena Unit of the Ulster County Home Extension Service was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Grace Coy. Mrs. Coy was in charge of the lesson project, "Culture of Perennials." Twenty-two persons, including two guests were present. A social hour and refreshments followed the meeting.

Burial services were held at Modena Rural Cemetery Saturday, Oct. 24, for Willett Bennett of Middletown, husband of the former Evelyn Bernard of Modena.

Homer Paltridge of Long Island was a recent visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paltridge here.

Mrs. Charles Wright of the New Paltz Road was co-hostess at a meeting of the New Paltz Garden Club, held Wednesday evening, Oct. 28, at the home of Mrs. George Bishop. Guest speaker was R. I. Simmons, Division manager for the Bartlett Tree Expert Co., president of the Westchester County Tree Protective Association, and president of the New York State Aborist Association. Mr. Simmons spoke on the topic "Making the Most of Our Trees."

Birthdays observed Friday, Nov. 6, will be those of neighbors. Billy Adams, George Matheisen and Lester A. Wager Sr., who live north of Modena village on Route 32.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernard are co-chairmen of a turkey supper to be served Wednesday evening, Nov. 11, Veterans Day, at the Plattekill Grange Hall. Servings will start at 4:30 p. m. and continue until all are served.

Miss Glennie M. Wager accompanied Mrs. Frank Crawford Sr. of Beacon, Mrs. Frank Crawford of North Chelsea, to Coldenham and Newburgh Monday.

Too Much Mail

NASHVILLE (AP)—A Southern Baptist survey of pastors finds that 45 per cent of them think they get "too much" material mailed out from denominational headquarters. Another 49.7 per cent say they get the right amount. Only 5.3 per cent say they don't get enough.

Full blood Indians make up about 15 per cent of the population of Mexico.

Nine Amendments Up for Vote

Barge Canal, Northway Controversial Issues

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Controversies over the state Barge Canal and the Adirondack Northway will go to a jury of voters next week.

New York residents will act Nov. 3 on nine proposed constitutional amendments, including two that would:

Authorize use of 300 acres of forest preserve lands for a segment of the Albany-Canada Northway (Amendment II).

Authorize the Legislature to turn control of the Barge Canal over to the federal government (Amendment VI).

Another controversy has swirled around an amendment that would allow New York City to exceed its constitutional debt limit by $500,000,000 to borrow money for school construction (Amendment IV).

Six Other Amendments

The other six amendments have produced some discussion but no extensive debate. These include amendments to:

Create a state department of motor vehicles to replace the present Motor Vehicles Bureau, a unit of the tax department (Amendment I).

Require public officials to testify before grand juries when asked about any office they held in the five years preceding their appearance before the jury. The Constitution now requires such testimony only about a current office (Amendment III).

Supporters of the Adirondack route for the Northway say it would open the mountain area to enjoyment by far more persons than now use it. They hold that 300 of the 2,300,000 acres of the preserve would be a small price to pay for providing an adequate highway into the forest area.

Claim About Park

Opponents maintain that the forest preserve, which the Constitution says shall be "forever wild," should not be further invaded for any reason. The Northway would ruin the character of the whole park, partly by stimulating industry and commerce, they say. They also say a mountain route would be more expensive to keep clear of ice and snow. Opponents generally favor a Lake Champlain route, which would not involve use of preserve lands.

The Barge Canal amendment is permissive. There are no formal plans for turning the canal over to the federal government. However, debate over the amendment has centered on the assumption that passage would mean ultimate federal control. Legislative leaders have promised full investigation and discussion before any decisions are made.

The arguments shape up this way: Supporters—the canal needs extensive improvements the state cannot afford and the federal government would make. The state would save the seven-million-dollar annual cost of the toll-free waterway. The canal is the only major, inland waterway not yet under federal control.

Opponents—the state needs the canal waters for municipal, agricultural and other purposes besides navigation. Under federal control, navigation would be the chief concern.

Supporters of the amendment include commercial users of the Barge Canal, who would benefit by a modernized and improved system. The state AFL-CIO, New York Chamber of Commerce and other groups in the Canal Improvement Committee also favor it.

Opponents include the New York Assn. of Railroads. Its members compete with the canal for freight traffic. Several conservation, farm and business groups also are members of a committee formed to fight the amendment.

As for Amendment I, the state's Little Hoover Commission recommended that the Motor Vehicles Bureau be expanded to a full department. The bureau originally was established in the tax department because the bureau collects money—fees for licenses and registrations. The bureau's functions have grown over the years. It now licenses and regulates several million vehicles and drivers a year.

Talk About Bureaucracy

There has been some opposition to the change on the ground it would create more bureaucracy in the state.

Amendment III:

Under the present Constitution, a public official who refuses to testify before a grand jury about his present post is subject to discharge from that post.

But, in some instances, officials have refused to talk about their previous posts and have not been subject to the constitutional penalty. The proposed amendment would require them to talk about any post they had held within five years preceding the call before the jury.

Reports Russian Iron in Buffalo Since October 25

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — A shipment of 370 tons of Russian-made pig iron has been in the Black River yards of the Canadian National Railway here since Sunday, a railroad spokesman says.

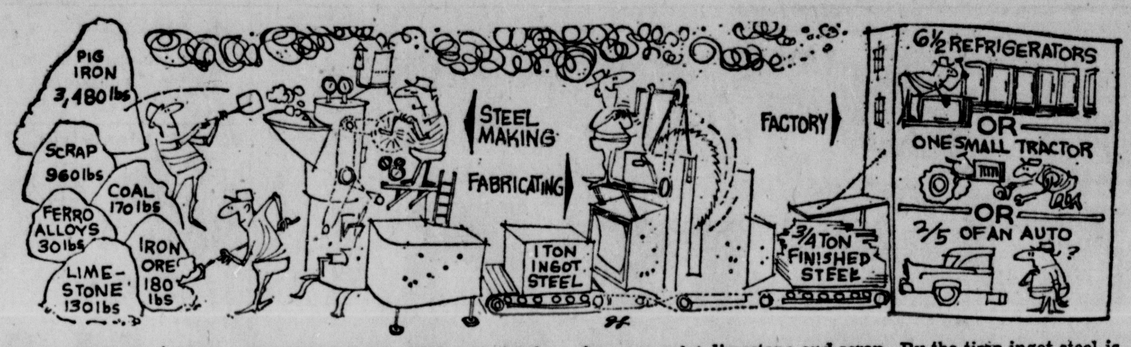

The eight carloads of material was shipped here by rail from Montreal, the spokesman said Wednesday. According to customs records, the consignee is Primary Industries Corp., of 120 Wall St., New York City.

The first of the shipment will be delivered to the bond plant of American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp., the railroad official said.

An officer of the American Standard said he was aware that the plant was to receive a shipment of foreign pig iron, "but I certainly didn't know where it was coming from."

He said raw material purchases were handled by the New York City office. "It might be a matter of prices," he said when asked why the company was purchasing foreign pig iron.

In Washington Wednesday, Sen. Hartke (D-Ind) said he was shocked to learn that 2,400 tons of pig iron made in Russia had been shipped to the United States during the steel strike. He said the Commerce Department reported some of it was delivered for $49.25 a ton in Buffalo, compared with $66 a ton for domestic pig iron.

ONE TON OF STEEL, BEGINNING TO END—Steelmaking requires handling of a great variety of raw materials. Fanciful factory, above, shows the production of one ton of ingot (carbon) steel and what it will make in terms of consumer goods. It takes 4,950 pounds of raw materials to make the ton of steel. Included in the 3,480 pounds of pig iron are iron ore, coke, limestone and scrap. By the time ingot steel is fabricated into finished steel, a quarter-ton is pared off which goes back into the furnaces as scrap. In 1958, for example, ingot steel production was 85.3 million tons and finished steel shipments stood at 59.9 million tons, excluding exports. Data from American Iron and Steel Institute.

Dissension Rocks Golden Age Club

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The Golden Age Club of Albany Inc. is being racked with dissension.

Arguments within the organization, which is dedicated to friendship, recreation and companionship among those 60 and over, reached such a pitch at one recent meeting that police were called.

What's disturbing the serenity? "Dictatorial officers," says Philip Hohenstein, 68.

Officers contend that Hohenstein is trying to promote a rival organization, the Thursday Social Club.

Mrs. R. F. Blechstein, corresponding secretary, whose husband is running for re-election as president, says the Hohenstein faction is trying to oust her husband and absorb the club's 30 members into one group, which also include the Silver Club and the Senior Citizens.

Mrs. Blechstein called the police two weeks ago when Hohenstein took the floor at a Golden Age meeting. Hohenstein and some of the members left.

Hohenstein has called a meeting for next month to discuss "the present operation of the club."

Mrs. Blechstein commented: "Some of our members are frail and nervous. They can't stand being upset this way. Why can't we be left alone?"

Along Capitol Corridors

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A graying, crew-cut jurist is favored in Capitol speculation for another chance at one of the state's most coveted elective jobs—a seat in the Court of Appeals.

Republican Sydney F. Foster of Liberty, Sullivan County, now presiding justice of the State Supreme Court's Appellate Division, Third Department, is being mentioned prominently as a successor to Associate Judge Charles S. Desmond of the Court of Appeals.

Desmond Moving Up

Desmond will move up to chief judge of the high court Jan. 1 to succeed Albert Conway, who is retiring.

Gov. Rockefeller will appoint an interim successor to Desmond. The post will be filled for a full, 14-year term in November 1960.

Foster ran for the Court of Appeals in 1954 but was defeated by Democrat Adrian Burke. The political battle was waged despite traditional efforts by the state's Republican and Democratic parties to agree on candidates and keep the state's highest court above partisan politics.

Neither Foster nor Burke was a member of the court at the time. Burke pulled ahead with 257,047 votes under the Liberal Party flag.

The interim judge appointed by Rockefeller to serve next year could be in a preferred position, as a judge already sitting on the court, for a bi-partisan endorsement. At least, his own party's nomination would be likely.

Gov. Rockefeller's office reports that no decision has been made on an appointee.

A spokesman said he did not know of any overtures yet from hopeful candidates.

But, there obviously will be a good deal of political skirmishing for the post.

Judges of the New York Court of Appeals are the highest paid in the nation—$44,000 a year, including expenses, for the chief judge, and $41,500 for the associates.

In addition, service on the state's highest court is rich in prestige. Many lawyers, including some whose salary is far higher than that of the court's judges, would gladly take a cut in pay to top their careers with a term on the Court of Appeals.

Slam Lies in Muddy Waters

BY OSWALD JACOBY
.. Written for NEA Service

West's three spade bid was intended to stir things up and it certainly had the desired effect except that when things settled down East and West wished they had left the waters unmuddied.

North refused to be shut out and after East raised to four spades, South first bid a Blackwood four no-trump and then tried six clubs. North did not know exactly what was going on and followed the principle of "when in doubt, pass!"

It proved to be a quite a decision. There was no play at all for any other slam and with the opening of ace and another spade South ran off 12 tricks by means of a squeeze against East.

It wasn't very complicated. South ruffed the second spade and drew trumps. East had to make two discards. One diamond discard was no bother. The second discard had to be another diamond. He could not afford to throw the king of spades or to unguard the queen of hearts and he had to hope that West would hold one of the three top diamonds.

Of course, South had those cards, and the second diamond discard established the whole suit for him.

STANDING ON HER DIGNITY

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know what you think of the following: The daughter of longtime neighbors of ours was married recently. I did not receive an invitation to the reception, but being friendly with the family for many years I attended the wedding ceremony. After the ceremony I went up to speak to the bride's mother and she urged me to come to the reception pointing out that there had been last minute cancellations from guests. I of course declined but I thought this "left-handed" invitation in very bad taste. What is your opinion, or am I just being oversensitive? ?

Answer: I think your neighbor's invitation was motivated by friendliness and that you are placing too much importance on the "left-handedness" of her well meant invitation.

Going Down Receiving Line

Dear Mrs. Post: How do a husband and wife go down a receiving line at the wedding reception when they are strangers to the two mothers who I understand will receive the guests first? Should the wife go first and introduce herself only, and the husband introduce himself, or do we just say "how do you do" and pass on without giving our names?

Answer: If there is no one to announce you, you say to the bride's mother, "I am Mrs. John Jones" and your husband following says, "I am John Jones." You do not repeat your names to the groom's mother or anyone else who may be in the receiving line.

Evening Dresses and Tuxedos

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it ever proper for a woman to wear a normal evening dress if the man with whom she is dining has no dinner coat and has to wear a business suit?

Answer: This is a very moot question of the present day when any number of well-born men wearing day clothes are accompanying women in barest evening clothes. According to longest established etiquette, however, a gentleman accompanying a lady in evening dress must wear a tuxedo.

* * *

Mrs. Post offers readers leaflets on a variety of subjects concerning etiquette. If you would like to have her leaflet E-36, entitled, "The New Baby," send 10 cents in coin to Dept. E.P., care of The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Mrs. William McVey Named to Women's Clubs Honor Roll

Mrs. William J. McVey of Kingston, Third District Director of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, has been named to the honor roll of the state federation for her many services to that organization.

Announcement of the honor was made at a recent meeting of the third district at Albany. Mrs. McVey has served the federation for some time and has been Ulster County chairman and chairman of the arts and crafts division of the state.

The honor roll is a permanent record of active clubwomen of the state and enables the state endowment and scholarship funds to function with money received.

At the meetingg reports of county chairmen and departments were given. Mrs. William Kloepfer, Ulster County chairman, reported on the numerous charitable activities of Sorosis, Twentieth Century Club of Kingston, Saugerties Monday Club and the Woman's Club of Rosendale. One of the clubs helped support the Ellen Finger Nursing Home, another initiated the Rosendale Library, two were study groups and activities from fashion shows to auctions were listed.

Mrs. Vernon B. Level, president of the New York State Federation of Woman"s Clubs, spoke to the group on club work. Among district officers attending from Ulster County were Mrs. Frederick H. Stang, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Gene Van Winkle, publicity chairman.

Open House and Organ Recital Is Set For November 4 in New KHS Auditorium

On Wednesday, Nov. 4, the public is invited to an Open House inspection of the new Kingston High School auditorium and the music and dramatic rooms directly in the rear of the auditorium stage.

Feature of the evening will be a short organ recital on the new Electronic organ which has been presented to KHS by the high school choir.

The organ cost more than $4500, all of which was raised by the choir from proceeds of concerts given.

The recital will be given by Lewis Gerard, formerly organist and choirmaster at Pembroke Chapel, Liverpool, England, well known as a television artist in the United States and Canada.

The concert is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. following which, the public will be greeted and welcomed by Mrs. Vincent Connelly of the Kingston Board of Education, and invited to tour and inspect the new rooms.

According to an issue of the KHS school paper, the new organ has two complete manuals and full 32 note pedal board. The tonal specification includes 26 independent stops and six couplers, with a full complement of stops in each of the four families of organ tone—diapason, flute, string and reed. It also has special attachments which can be used for theatrical effects such as harpsichord and Hawaiian guitar.

Are you a Unitarian without knowing it?

1. Do you believe the Bible to be an inspiring human document, rather than the literal "word of God?"
2. Do you believe that man is not condemned by the doctrine of "original sin," but is inherently capable of improvement?
3. Do you believe the development of character to be more important than the accepting of religious creeds?
4. Do you believe the purpose of religion is to help us live this life nobly and constructively, rather than to emphasize the preparation for an after-existence?

The Unitarian answers are affirmative. Join with other religious liberals who insist upon individual freedom of belief and the use of reason in religion.

Advice on Overseas Shopping

How can you tell if pearls are real? Are Balinese paintings worth anything in America? Where can I get the best buys in star sapphires? How can I shop and still have time for sightseeing?

These are some questions often put to travel experts and because the experts probably most qualified to answer them are ships' social directors, here is some advice they have passed on to us. Some of it is very enlightening.

One social directress for a Swedish line says that inexperienced travelers tend to overbuy because everything seems a bargain. "One lady confessed she had never seen a cathedral or musum from the inside," she said. She learned her lesson since, our expert tells us. Now this tourist plans her shopping expeditions so she will still have plenty of time for sightseeing.

Most experienced travelers, shopping experts agree, are selective shoppers. They know what they want, and they ask the best place to buy it. Experienced or not, though, many women are compulsive shoppers. The moment the ship docks (or the plane lands) they rush feverishly to the shops and buy, buy, buy—allowing practically no time for sightseeing. They see very little of the countries visited in their travels.

If your friends or family collect charms, dolls, tea caddy spoons, figurines or bells as a hobby, they make fine gifts. And when you buy them, be sure to ask where they are made and whether the design has any ritualistic or historical significance. You'll learn a lot about the country this way and you'll add to the pleasure of whomever gets your presents.

Another key to cruise shopping is to decide on major purchases before you leave home. Another is to remember what the product would cost at home. Then you'll only buy what you want and at the right price. Among the best buys in South America are alligator products and nutria coats in Argentina and semi-precious stones in Brazil—so we are told.

Before you go ashore, find out whether it is the local custom to pay the asking price or to bargain. In India and throughout the Far East you are expected to bargain. And, of course, nothing is a bargain unless you can use it.

Know your merchandise and be sure you understand your currency converter. Trying to negotiate without knowing the value of foreign money is like trying to walk a tightrope without a wire.

Don't overbuy at the first port. Sometimes merchandise is cheaper and better quality at some other ports of call.

And to answer the question on pearls. Real pearls have a sort of "dimple" at the top, one expert says. When buying pearls, check lustre, shape, color and flaw. Pearls with pinkish tone are usually the most expensive; next are silver, white and yellow, in that order.

Double Wedding for Sherlock Sisters Takes Place at St. Christopher's in Red Hook

In a double wedding on Saturday, Oct. 10 at St. Christopher Church, Red Hook, Nora B. Sherlock wed Alfred Rossman Jr., and Margaret Sherlock wed Richard J. Cappotto.

The sisters are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Sherlock of Roscrea, Tipperary County in Ireland.

Mr. Rossman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rossman Sr., of Red Hook, and Richard Cappotto is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Cappotto of Syracuse.

Since the parents of the brides are in Ireland, the sisters gave each other in marriage.

The Rev. Edward Dobransky, assistant pastor of St. Christopher's, officiated during the double ring ceremonies.

Vases of white flowers decorated the church for the occasion. Each bride wore a white Chantilly lace ballerina gown fashioned with Peter Pan collar, fitted bodice, long sleeves and bouffant hooped skirt with scalloped edge. Their matching lace crowns held fingertip length pure silk illusion veils. Each carried a white orchid on a lace-covered prayer book.

Miss Nuala Barry of Alexandia, Va., served as maid of honor for Mrs. Rossman, and Miss Margaret O'Meara of Solvay was maid of honor for Mrs. Cappotto. Both honor attendants wore coral embroidered silk organza over taffeta gowns with boat necklines, molded bodices, full skirts in ballerina length with matching hats and flirtation veils. They carried yellow and rust colored roses arranged in a colonial bouquet.

Best man for Alfred H. Rossman was James Murray of Ellenville. Anthony D'Amico of Syracuse was best man for his cousin, Mr. Cappotto. Ushering was Charles Hart of Rhinecliff.

A reception was given at the Red Hook Hotel immediately following the wedding ceremony.

Both brides were educated in Ireland. Mrs. Rossman is employed as a secretary by Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts in Kingston. Her husband is an alumnus of Highland Falls High School and the American Academy in New York City. He is a customer engineer with the IBM Sales Office in Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Cappotto, who has been in America for four years, is employed by Nationwide Insurance, Syracuse. Her husband is employed by American Telephone and Telegraph in Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Rossman, will reside in Red Hook when they return from their wedding trip to Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Cappotto will make their home in Syracuse after a wedding trip through New England.

Mendelssohn Club to Host Mass Chorus Concert in Kingston on December 1

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 1, at the Municipal Auditorium, the Mendelssohn Club of Kingston will be hosts at a mass concert which will take the place of Mendelssohn's usual Fall concert. Singing will be the IBM Mixed Chorus and the IBM Male Chorus, both of Poughkeepsie; Lyric Choristers of Kingston; Community Mixed Chorus of Poughkeepsie and the Mendelssohn Club.

During the evening each of the participating clubs will sing a group of numbers and the concert will conclude with the entire chorus of 300 voices joining in a group of well-known selections.

The concert will be given at the IBM Country Club in Poughkeepsie on Saturday, Nov. 21 and will be repeated in Kingston on December 1. Tickets for the Kingston concert will be available from both active and associate members of Mendelssohn Club.

The Mendelssohn Club is again under the able direction of Albert G. Hunter, Jr., of Poughkeepsie.

Thursday Is Donation Day and Tea At Home for the Aged in Kingston

Mrs. Thomas Reynolds Sr., president of the Board of Managers at Home for the Aged, Washington Avenue, this city, drew special attention to Thursday's Donation Day and Tea at a recent meeting of the group.

Emphasizing the valuable and necessary support of the regular members, the associate members, the Board of Trustees and all interested persons, Mrs. Reynolds said that Donation Day is the only fund raising campaign held during the entire year.

The event will be held from 1:30-4 p. m.

Financial contributions, food and other items have been requested.

Attractive articles made by the residents of the Home will be available.

The traditional tea will be served during the afternoon. Public is cordially invited.

A new slate of officers will be elected at the November 19 meeting according to Mrs. Ella Ochs, publicity chairman. All members are urged to attend.

400 Parishes Are To Participate In Clothes Drive

Francis Cardinal Spellman today announced participation of the Catholic Archdiocese of New York in the eleventh annual Thanksgiving clothing collection sponsored by the Catholic Bishops of the United States and dedicated to "World Refugee Year" which ends June 30, 1960.

Regional directors will be appointed soon by Cardinal Spellman to supervise the drive in the counties of Ulster, Dutchess, Rockland, Westchester, Orange, Putnam and Sullivan and in the Boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx and Richmond, which comprise the New York Archdiocese.

Cardinal Spellman appointed the Rev. Frederick A. Nelan, former bursar of Cathedral College and currently head of Institutional commodities service of the archdiocese, to direct the campaign.

The 400 Catholic parishes in this area, Father Nelan states, will be staffed from Nov. 22 until Nov. 29 to receive donations of used clothing, shoes and blankets for distribution to men, women and children of all faiths in refugee camps and poverty stricken areas around the world. In addition, a money collection will be taken up in all Catholic churches on Nov. 22 to purchase food and medical supplies for overseas relief.

"Pope John XXIII," Father Nelan points out," has added his voice to those of the leaders of many nations, asking Catholics throughout the world to intensify their efforts to relieve the plight of the millions of refugees still languishing in many corners of the world. Although last year the Catholic Bishops had a record collection of 13,000,000 pounds of clothing, almost one million of it contributed by the New York Archdiocese, 'World Refugee Year' gives us an added incentive to try and surpass that amount in the 1959 campaign."

Irish Troupe Appears Tonight and Friday At City Auditorium

Kingston Council 275, Knights of Columbus, is sponsoring the internationally acclaimed troupe of performers, the Irish Repertoire Theater of Dublin, Ireland, which appears tonight and Friday at 8:30 p. m. at municipal auditorium.

This will be the first American tour of the troupe, which will offer some of the best dances, comedy, drama and songs of the rich and happy culture for which Ireland is known.

Proceeds of the shows will go directly to the general fund of the council of Knights of Columbus for community service.

Sawyer Soph Debaters Victorious at Norwich

Saugerties' quest for a winning JV squad in debate seemed to be fruitful Saturday at Norwich.

Practice rounds were scheduled for varsity squads from Binghamton and Utica pitted against B squads for Norwich, Jeffersonville and Saugerties. A sophomore quartet from Saugerties finished first with a record of five wins and one loss. Jefferson was second.

Sharon Johnson, Virginia Roeser, Lynn Broome and Charles Hall triumphed over senior squads from Utica and Binghamton, and lost only one round to Jeffersonville. Less fortunate companions on the trip pinned with four losses and two wins were Ronald Smith, Marlene Carpino, Mary Metzler and Florence McDermott in the lower half of the practice meet.

A week ago today Saugerties acted as host to the Mid-Hudson Debate League for a freshmen debate demonstration. Paul Kruger and George Popowicz defeated Judy Stone and Mary Sherman of Newburgh. Sam Prichard, state coordinator of debate, was the critic-judge and explained the responsibilities of each side to the 150 guests.

Recreation Office Opens Winter-Fall Projects Saturday

The winter season of the Kingston Recreation Department will officially begin Saturday, at the annual Halloween parade and party.

The first event will be a parade down Broadway from Academy Green to Delaware Avenue. Marchers from uptown will be escorted down to the Municipal Auditorium by the musical units and the 40 & 8 locomotive. The musical units will then continue down to Delaware Avenue where the marchers from downtown will be picked up and escorted to the auditorium.

This year's parade will be the biggest in the history of the event with four musical units participating.

In the parade this year will be the 40 & 8 locomotive which, if the proper arrangements can be made, will transport some of the younger costumed marchers to the auditorium.

Musical units scheduled to participate are Colonial Cavaliers, Cavaliers Junior Corps, VFW Red Devils and the Boy Scout Drum Corps of Troop 12.

All corps will be dressed in gaily colored costumes. The costumed contest will start immediately after the parade. Step off time is 7 p. m. from Academy Green Park.

County Democratic Women Attend Tea

As a part of a nation-wide celebration of the 20th anniversary of "Democratic Women's Day," Democratic women workers from all parts of Ulster County were honored at a silver tea Wednesday afternoon at Democratic Headquarters, Kingston. The 26 women who are candidates in this fall's elections were special guests.

Presiding at the tea table which was decorated with fall flowers, were Mrs. Edwin F. Radel and Mrs. William A. Kelly.

Mrs. Raymond A. McAndrew of Kingston and Mrs. Norman Kellar of Esopus were co-chairmen of the event which was sponsored by the Ulster County Democratic Women's Division.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Harriet Allen Kerr, Democratic State Committeewoman and president of the Women's Division, who stressed the ever-increasing contribution of women to their party.

"We are happy today," said Mrs. Kerr, "to have this opportunity to honor all Democratic women workers, and especially to honor our women who are serving their party and their communities by running for office this fall."

Saugerties GOP Town Candidate

Peter M. Williams, widely known and popular Republican candidate to succeed himself as supervisor for the Town of Saugerties is again offering the citizens of the township his wealth of experience gained in 10 years of handling the problems of Saugerties during its greatest expansion in history.

New situations requiring the utmost in clear thinking and good sound judgment, and decisions that never before had to be made by any administrator of the township were effectually handled by Supervisor Williams who at all times upheld the integrity of his office.

Supervisor Williams, a noted champion of local veterans, lives with his family on his farm in Churchland on the outskirts of the village.

Within his busy schedule, he is called upon to head campaigns of benevolence and has given his services to further the youth organizations of the area.

His decisions are always governed by his political creed, "to handle all matters in the most efficient manner to benefit the greatest number of people."

Saugerties GOP Town Candidate

Miss Marion Newkirk of Saugerties-Woodstock Road is the Republican candidate for Saugerties town clerk to succeed herself.

She was appointed town clerk in February of this year to fill the unexpired term of the late William Ferman.

An experienced administrator for the township for 14 years, she served in the town welfare office since 1943 and became secretary and bookkeeper at the town office when Supervisor Peter M. Williams first took office in 1950.

Prominent in community activities, she serves as organist of Centerville Methodist Church, and secretary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church. Active in youth work, she serves as leader of the Friendly Blue Birds and has been affiliated with the Camp Fire organization since 1945.

Miss Newkirk is a graduate of Saugerties High School and attended the former Spencer Business School in Kingston before it became known as Moran-Spencerian School of Business.

She is a conscientious and loyal town employe and well qualified for the position of town clerk.

Rights Are Told Workers for Time Off for Voting

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz reminded workers today of their rights under a highly controversial state law providing for paid time-off for voting.

The attorney general pointed out in a statement that, under State Election Law, employes could have two hours off to vote in Tuesday's election without loss of wages.

Those wishing the time off must notify their employers before Election Day.

Associated Industries of New York, an employer group, long has urged the Legislature to make changes in the law to limit the time off to workers who could not vote during their own time off the job.

The organization says the 69-year-old law was passed at a time when polls were open only during working hours but, since then, the voting hours have lengthened and working hours shortened and most workers now can vote on their own time.

6,600 Ships to Pass

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — An estimated 6,600 ships will pass through the U. S. locks of the St. Lawrence Seaway before the waterway closes for the winter Nov. 30, Seaway officials estimate.

A spokesman said Wednesday 5,650 ships had cleared the locks to date.

Grange Official Says Non-Farmers Deciding Issues

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP)—Many of the vital issues effecting the home and pocketbook of American farmers now are decided by their "city cousins," a Grange official says.

Roy Battles, assistant to the master of the National Grange, said Wednesday night farmers no longer control national elections and cannot assume that agriculture will receive top priority in terms of national concern.

"Your 'city cousin' no longer understands you. He has had no opportunity to become acquainted with today's agriculture—its problems and what prosperity on the land means to him," Battles said.

He said non-farmers were deciding more of the vital rural issues as a result. Included in the vital issues, he said, were taxes, farm-price policies, the types of roads, schools and other public services. Also, marketing regulations, soil and water problems and whether farm children might continue to help with farm chores.

Battles called for a bigger, stronger, better financed Grange and a program of education and public information designed to portray the farmers' outlook to other segments of the economy.

Leland D. Smith of Brasher Falls was re-elected to his fifth term of two years as master of the State Grange.

More than 1,000 representatives from 56 counties are attending the four-day convention which concludes Friday.

An average of 59,000 people were admitted to hospitals in the United States each day in 1958.

Kingston Hosts Vincentian; New Paltz Seeks UCAL Title

Highland Plays At Wappingers For DCSL Crown

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Hoping that a two week layoff will bring about some pleasant results for the rest of the season, the Kingston High School football team will host Vincentian of Albany Saturday, 1:30 p. m., at the Stadium as the grid season enters the homestretch.

Nine area contests are slated this weekend with all the games scheduled for Saturday. The big one in the UCAL will be played at night when the Huguenots seek to clinch the league verdict with a win against winless Onteora. This is the annual Halloween feature at the New Paltz gridiron.

Other engagements are Newburgh at Port Jervis in a DUSO tilt, A. B. Davis of White Plains at Middletown, Saugerties at Roosevelt in a DCSL struggle, Beacon at Poughkeepsie Highland at Wappingers in a crucial DCSL meeting, Arlington at Cardinal Farley Military Academy and Marlboro at Rondout Valley in a UCAL game.

In addition to New Paltz seeking to lock up the DCSL title, Highland can clinch a third straight Dutchess County League championship with a decision over Wappingers Falls. The DUSO gonafolin will probably be decided next Saturday when the league leading Poughkeepsie Pioneers invade Newburgh Free Academy for a meeting with the Goldbacks.

A capsule comment on the scheduled games:

VINCENTIAN at KINGSTON—Both clubs have had disappointing seasons. The Lions have lost the Diocesan championship after holding it for many seasons and have a 2-3 mark to date. KHS is 1-2 and will attempt to start another win streak. This tilt promises to be a tossup between two average clubs.

ONTEORA at NEW PALTZ—It figures to be a romp for the loaded Huguenots but the Indians will be up for this one and might cause anxious moments. However, the records all point to a New Paltz victory.

NEWBURGH at PORT JERVIS—Another tossup. The Goldbacks have a 3-1 record to date but they lack an offensive punch. Port has won only once but has improved and might win this one.

A. B. DAVIS at MIDDLETOWN — It's been a long time since Middletown last won a football game (14 straight to be exact). This will be another in the string of losses.

SAUGERTIES at ROOSEVELT—The Sawyers, who play a rough schedule each season, have one they should win this time. The Presidents are big but slow and inexperienced. Saugerties has given a good account all season long.

BEACON at POUGHKEEPSIE—The Pioneers are on their way to their best season in several years. Beacon is good but does not figure to be in Poughkeepsie's class.

HIGHLAND at WAPPINGERS—This one is for the marbles and in this same situation two straight times, Highland has come out on top. This should be the third but a hard, bruising battle is expected.

ARLINGTON at CARDINAL FARLEY—Coach Fritz Jordan said he was hoping for four victories this season. This will be the fourth against an outclassed Cadet squad. Arlington has been a pleasant surprise.

MARLBORO at RONDOUT VALLEY—Both clubs have had several tough losses all season and they would like nothing better than to close their UCAL season with victories. Marlboro has more depth and might wear Chick Meehan's hustling eleven down.

PITTSBURGH — (NEA) — Until he came through brilliantly against the Giants as a pass receiver, the Steelers were suspicious of Buddy Dial because the same Giants had released the former Rice star. . . . The Giants didn't think he had brilliant speed to compensate for his slight physique, but Bobby Lane says, "I crank up and throw the ball as far as I can, and he's always there waiting for it." . . .

The Buddy Parker - George Wilson feud is blazing again because the Lions claimed tackle Jim Weatherall on waivers after Parker had talked him out of retiring. . . . Steelers even had Weatherall listed on program, with No. 77, to play last Sunday. . . .

Put this down—the smartest coach in football is Tom Landry, the obscure defensive genius of the New York Giants . . . the guys on their offensive team can't get over how Tom will stand on the sidelines when they play Cleveland call every play the Browns will run after they break huddle. . . . "And 95 per cent of them right," says Frank Gifford. . . . Landry's basic theory of defense—stop the running game first and play for the short pass, gamble against the long pass. . . .

Tom was an industrial engineer at Texas . . . specialized in management efficiency . . . and he applies those studies to football. . . .

Tom Landry

The Steelers' quest for a running back this year went into the dozens, but there was one whose physical potential stood out . . . until quarterback Bobby Lane called a "29 pitchout right" in an exhibition game, took the center snap, spun and threw to the right . . . only to find the rookie had gone to the left . . . on the sidelines. Buddy Parker asked the kid: "Didn't you know you were supposed to go right?" . . . the kid thought it over a second and brightened: "So I was, so I was." . . . Next day he went right, off the Steeler roster. . . .

Parker says the Steelers are stymied for running backs "because the only good ones are No. 1 and 2 draft choices . . . and you know we never get any of those." . . .

Dave Nelson, the imaginative coach of undefeated Delaware (LSU and Northwestern, the two top-ranked teams in the nation, have copied his wing-T offense) was approached by Pitt last August about becoming athletic director but told them he wouldn't talk about it until after football season. . . . Maybe Delaware is responding to a note Dave got from Iowa's Forest Evashevski last December. . . . Evvy, who is Nelson's closest football buddy and a former teammate at Michigan, had taken his Hawkeyes to the Rose Bowl using Nelson's offense, too. . . . "I've made you famous," scribbled Evvy, "now why in the h--- don't you go out and do something for yourself?" . . .

* * *

We can see the fine promotional hand of Syracuse's Norm Rothschild in those published reports (but don't you believe 'em) that Rocky Marciano would come back for a million guarantee spread over 20 years. . . .

Former New York boxing commissioner Eddie Eagan was telling at the Ruby Goldstein luncheon how he once had to revoke a wrestler's license because he played it too straight . . . 'twas one of the Garibaldi brothers, and he went out after an opponent like he was going to kill him (and meant to) . . . instead of following the script prescribed for "exhibitions" . . . so to protect the victim, Eddie cancelled Garibaldi's license. . . .

"If you like to play golf, don't coach football," prescribes Bobby Dodd . . . "because if they see you on the links when your team is losing, they say you ought to spend more time with the kids . . . so I took up fishing." . . .

* * *

No matter what kind of a season he has, SMU's Don Meredith will be the No. 1 draft choice of the pros . . . with Billy Cannon second . . . and Penn State's Richi Lucas, who could edge Meredith for All-American honors, is being cased by the pros as a defensive halfback . . . hardest running college back we've seen this year is TCU's Marv Lasater, a tough 190-pounder. . . .

Maybe Don Floyd's the All-American tackle for the Horned Frogs, but the guy on the other side of the TCU line, Bob (Tiger) Lilly, is 240 pounds of more impressive bulk and aggressiveness.

Between you'n'me, a pro coach watching Pitt and TCU tug at each other—two prime specimens of big-time college football—couldn't suppress a shake of the head and a yawn: "What terrible pass patterns." . . .

Wyoming Set to Appeal Probation by NCAA

By BOB GREEN

BOSTON (AP)—The University of Wyoming is expected to appeal a decision by the NCAA council which placed the school on probation for a year and ruled the cowboy football team ineligible for post-season bowl games.

"We don't think we violated the NCAA code and we've been trying to play it real straight," Wyoming head football coach Bob Devaney said in Laramie, Wyo., Wednesday after the policy-directing body of the powerful NCAA handed down its decision.

Devaney said he plans to appeal the ruling, which would knock his team out of a trip to the Sun Bowl game.

And in Bozeman, Mont., the Council of Deans at Montana State College unanimously agreed to appeal for a review of another NCAA ruling placing that school on a two-year probation.

The college is host to the NCAA-sponsored ski meet in March. The action means that it cannot participate. The deans said they would appeal particularly the severity of the penalty.

Both schools were penalized for violations of the NCAA rules on recruiting and financial aid to athletes.

Wyoming currently leads the Skyline Conference football race, and was considered a prime candidate for a spot in the Sun Bowl game at El Paso, Tex., if it won the title. The NCAA action spoiled that.

The council, which concluded its regular fall meeting Wednesday, earlier had handed out probation sentences to Arizona State University at Temple and the University of Mississippi. They also were punished for recruiting and financial aid violations.

Syracuse U. Gridders No. 1? Many Followers Believe So

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) —Syracuse is madly in love with its football team, currently ranked No. 5 among the nation's powers.

Here is a typical observation: "Louisiana State (No. 1) and Mississippi (No. 3) play Saturday. One of them has got to lose. Maybe Texas (No. 4) will get knocked off, too. There might be two places open for us."

A visitor from outer space hardly dares to suggest that Syracuse, too, might lose Saturday's game at Pittsburgh.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder still spins such homilies as "we'll play them one at a time" and "we're just country folks."

Knowing it would do no good to ask about future opponents ("they're all tough"), a fellow asked which was the best club Syracuse had met.

"Navy (32-6), I guess," Ben started. "Maybe Kansas (35-21). They scored the most on us. Holy Cross (42-6) gave us a scare. They scored first. But Navy moved the ball against us on the ground (59 yards). I guess you'd have to say Navy."

Syracuse has been playing intercollegiate football since 1889. In all those years, it never had an unbeaten club. Many able critics think this one will go all the way.

"Our line has been coming along pretty good," commended Ben.

The first line — nicknamed the "sizable Seven" by publicist Val Pinchbeck in a moment of inspiration — has yielded a grand total of 140 yards in five games. The enemy ground game has averaged 28 yards a game.

Asked to name the key linemen, Schwartzwalder listed Roger Davis (6-3, 228 pounds), his short-side guard, and his tackles, Maury Youmans (6-6, 226 pounds) and Bob Yates (6-1, 250).

"Everybody asks me to compare halfback Ernie Davis with Jimmy Brown. Everybody else does but I don't. Davis is coming along fine, improving every game (he averages 7.6 yards a carry)."

Schwartzwalder came to town in 1949 when football was at low ebb at Syracuse. A concerted drive toward "big time" status has paid off. Ben couldn't be more pleased about this turn of events.

"If you're going to play," he said, "you might as well mingle with the folks."

LSU Favored To Extend Win Streak Saturday

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Like the Brooklyn Dodgers of old, Mississippi cried "Wait 'til next year" after coming out on the short end of a 14-0 football decision to Louisiana State last season.

The Rebels get another shot at LSU Saturday night, and they'll never have a better chance.

Oddsmakers have installed LSU a one-point favorite for the battle before a sellout crowd of 67,500.

Rarely, if ever, has a repeat setting been so similar. Mississip roared into Tiger Stadium last year to go against the untamed Bengals. LSU was a two-touchdown winner in a close game statistically—and went on to win the national championship.

Come Saturday night and another unbeaten but more powerful Ole Miss team tackles undefeated LSU, on the prowl for another national title. LSU ranked first in this week's Associated Press poll while Ole Miss took third place.

Edge to Rebs?

Not only does Ole Miss have a glowing chance for revenge, but the statistics, while often misleading, seem to give the Rebels the edge.

Both teams have come through six games unscathed. While the LSU schedule is more difficult, the Rebels certainly have been more impressive in their triumphs.

Writers Select Cepeda Leading Sophomore of Year

SAN JUAN, P.A. (AP)—Orlando Cepeda, National League Rookie of the Year in 1958 and its Sophomore of the Year in 1959, has already set one goal for 1960.

"I want to become a first class outfielder," he said today. "If I am going to play that position, I am going to try to make good. I do not want to become a player carried by a ball club just for his hitting."

The San Francisco Giants' slugger Wednesday was named the leading sophomore in the annual Associated Press poll. He drew 86 of the 172 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America. Vada Pinson of Cincinnati was next with 66 votes.

Cepeda was shifted from first base to the outfield last August when Willie McCovey was brought up from the Pacific Coast League.

He batted .317 with 27 homers and 105 runs batted in, with the Giants the past season. This was an improvement over his rookie campaign when he hit .312 and had 25 homers and 96 RBIs.

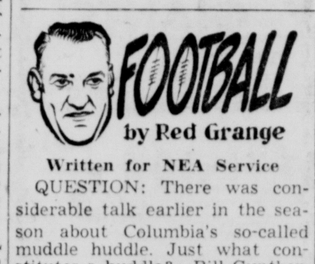

Olson Is Refused License to Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bobo Olson must get in line and fight his way to the top before the California Athletic Commission will approve his bid for another crack at Archie Moore's light heavyweight title.

The commission on Wednesday unanimously rejected a San Francisco boxing club request for sanction of a Moore-Olson title fight here in January.

The two met once before, on June 22, 1955. Olson, then the world middleweight champ, was knocked out in the third round.

QUESTION: There was considerable talk earlier in the season about Columbia's so-called muddle huddle. Just what constitutes a huddle?—Bill Gunther.

Answer: Two or more offensive players grouped together behind the line of scrimmage within 15 yards of the ball after it has been spotted by the referee and declared ready for play. Coming out of a huddle, all players of the offensive team must come to a stop for a second before the ball is snapped.

Q. Has the widening of the goal posts increased field goal kicking in the college game?—Tom O'Doul.

A. The three-point kicks keep soaring at a record rate. The two-point after-touchdown try is running 18 per cent behind last season's popularity.

* * *

Q. Why do television cameras swing away from disputes or fights on the field when they are more or less part of the game?—Tom Diskin.

A. I don't believe you've seen this at college games. There is no policy that cameras bypass such activity. College telecasting is governed only by the policy of good taste. It is my understanding, however, that the late commissioner, Bert Bell, laid down a policy that fights and disputes were not to be shown by cameras covering professional games.

American-Italian Cagers Defeat Sickler's, 61-58

Katsbaan Tavern, Raiders Get Wins In 'Y' Cage Loop

Surviving a basket barrage in the fourth quarter, the American-Italian Restaurant nipped Sicklers' Delivery, 61-58, in the feature game of a YMCA Fall Cage League tripleheader last night.

Katsbaan Tavern romped to a 62-37 triumph over Tarantulas Sr. and Raiders topped the Moxers, 54-33, in other contests.

With George Carpouzis and Champ Holstein showing the way, Italian-American cagers led 34-15 at halftime and 53-30 starting the final period. Then the losers erupted. They threw a tight press around the It-Am five and started to hit the basket. However, the bid fell a little short.

Carpouzis had 23 points and Holstein 17 for the winners while Joe Klonowski rimmed 18 and Ted Young 12 for Sickler's.

Ronnie Scheffel and Frank "Yip" Koenig had 48 points between them to spark the Katsbaan side. The winners trailed at the first stop but then coasted home after that. Mel Williams potted 12 points for the losing club.

Four players hit double figures in the Raiders' triumph over the Mixers. Sherman Colton had 13 for the losers.

Eastern Grid Section Has All-American List

By HUGH FULLERTON Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Eastern football this year can supply enough good ends to stock a couple of All America teams. There also are some first rate guards and quarterbacks who deserve national recognition.

But even the rabid fans aren't trying hard to drum up attention for the lads who fill the other positions. One reason is that injuries have hampered four of this area's best halfbacks—players who might have been demanding attention from the All America selectors.

The top ends include Pittsburgh's Mike Ditka, whose crashing blocks and tackles have earned him the tag of "hatchet man;" Rutgers' Captain Bob Simms; Army's "lonely end," Bill Carpenter; Penn Captain Barney Berlinger and Syracuse's Fred Mautino.

They're all about the same size —6-2 and 207 to 210 pounds—and adept at all phases of end play.

Ditka, from Aliquippa, Pa., is listed in the Pitt program as weighing 208 but hits as if he carried 20 pounds more. He's a defensive standout, a fine pass catcher and the team's best punter.

Rutgers coach John Stiegman claims Simms, from Charleston, W. Va., is the best college end in the country. Simms has helped justify this opinion by catching 13 touchdown passes, playing enthusiastically on defense and blocking superbly.

Carpenter is the key operative in the offense Army unveiled last year and retained this season. Berlinger has been a big factor in keeping Penn undefeated. Syracuse hasn't passed much this season but when it does take to the air, Mautino is the usual target.

Penn State quarterback Richie Lucas, a 185-pounder from Glassport, Pa., has been drawing rave notices from coaches all season. He's a double threat on offense since he developed passing accuracy this year. He gains well on rollout plays and he's a standout on defense. Army's Joe Caldwell, Pitt's erratic Ivan Toncic and Navy's Joe Tranchini must be rated behind him at this stage of the season.

Syracuse's leading All America candidate is Roger Davis, a rugged, swift-moving guard. Davis plays guard on offense and linebacker on defense.

Two other Orangemen, center Al Bemiller and tackle Maury Youmans, rate notice among the leading linemen along with Penn State tackle Andy Stynchula, Army's guard Al Vanderbush and Yale center Nike Pyle.

Army's top running back, Bob Anderson, who came close to making the All America grade as a sophomore in 1957, has been slowed by leg injuries so far this season. Navy's Joe Bellino, Dartmouth's Jake Crouthamel and Princeton's Danny Sachs also have been hurt. Syracuse fullback Art Baker and the Orange's Ernie Davis, a swift sophomore, probably are about as good runners as can be found in the east.

Ed Kovac Leads Nation in Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Scoring three touchdowns last Saturday for the second week in a row, Cincinnati's Ed Kovac has climbed to the top of the list of the nation's football scorers, displacing Pervis Atkins of New Mexico State.

Kovac has scored 10 touchdowns for 60 points to Atkins' nine touchdowns and one extra point for 55, according to statistics released today by the NCAA Service Bureau.

Stanford's Chris Burford continued his season-long domination of the pass receivers. Last week, he caught five passes to bring his total to 31 and increase his lead over Army's Bill Carpenter to three. Gail Cogdill of Washington State has caught only 22 tosses but is the yardage leader with 397.

Paul Maguire of the Citadel caught two touchdown passes Saturday for a total of six to lead in that department.

SportClubSoccer Players Slated To Meet Albany

One of the top soccer games of the season will take place Sunday at Hasbrouck Park when the Kingston Sport Club players meet the co-leader of the Central New York Soccer Football League, the Albany S. C. Game time is 2:30 p. m. and a banner crowd is expected. Number two teams of each club will play a preliminary contest at 1 p. m.

Kingston is third in the tight race with five wins and a loss in six games. The Albany AC and SC teams have five wins and a tie and share first spot.

Lane Gets Split Win Over Akins

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kenny Lane's gory and rumpus-raising decision over former welterweight champion Virgil Akins made him a threat in three divisions today.

Wth blood streaming over both fighters at the finish, Lane won a split decision in a nationally televised 10-rounder at Capitol Arena Wednesday in his welterweight debut.

The triumph before a yelling, whistling crowd stamped Lane, the Muskegon, Mich., southpaw, as a creditable prospect in the 147-pound division. He is still ranked second behind Carlos Ortiz among contenders for Joe Brown's lightweight crown and is as good a bidder as any for the junior welter title held by Ortiz.

For a moment Lane appeared doomed to a third round technical knockout after Akins jabbed open a cut over Kenny's right eye.

As blood gushed from the wound, referee Ray Bowen called in ring physician David Gordon to check Lane's eye. With Gordon came Kearns and his aides, who patched the injury as the doctor examined it.

Rival manager Bernie Glickman and his contingent then stormed the ring for an arm-waving ruckus with Kearns, Gordon and Bowen. They howled that Gordon had stopped the fight but changed his mind.

Lane said the physician had indicated the match was over but finally concluded it should continue for a while, at least. That saved Lane, who in the sixth slashed a gory cut near Akins' left eye.

Bowen scored the battle an 89-89 draw but judges Charley Buck (98-91) and Joe Bunsa (94-93) gave Lane the verdict. The Associated Press also had Lane ahead, 93-90.

Lane weighed a surprising 144½, tops for him, against Akins' 146.

Marv Engle Set to Start Saturday for Rutgers

Marv Engle, sophomore from Kingston, will be in the starting lineup Saturday afternoon when his Rutgers University teammates tackle unbeaten Delaware at Rutgers Stadium.

The former All-DUSO star has worked his way to a starting berth with the Scarlet after starting the season on the third team. Engle, who weighs 185 pounds, has been praised by Coach John Stiegman for his hustle and good performance.

Another starter for Rutgers will be Dick Pencek of Port Jervis. Pencek, a senior, will start at halfback. He is the second leading pass receiver on the team, behind All-American candidate Bob Simms, the greatest receiver in Rutgers history.

The Scarlet has a 4-1 record for the season while Delaware is 5-0. The Hens are favored to win and capture the Middle Atlantic Conference title.

BOWLING SCORES

Dick Howard started with 248 and 244 games in the Bowlero Major last night and was on his way to a possible 700 series. However, misfortune struck him the last game and he could only hit 159 and had to settle for a 651 series. It was the high score among city keglers.

They hit 600s in the Major as if they were going out of style. Others to crash the coveted circle were Frank Grimaldi 204-233-636, Hod Spauling 213-608, Mike Rienzo 222-617, Bob Shelightner 226-203-610, Ken Williams 204-219-603.

DON IN NEW ROLE—Los Angeles Dodgers Don Drysdale, who is becoming a television cowboy for the winter, loses his grip on six-shooter as he and actor John Russell, left, demonstrate a fast-draw. Drysdale's first effort as an actor will be in an episode of "The Lawman." A film official says the baseball star fits Hollywood's conception of a cowboy hero: "He's big, young, and has a Western face." (AP Wirephoto)

Cadets Pinning Hopes On Halfback Anderson

By JACK CLARY

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Army halfback Bob Anderson, who drew raves during his first two seasons but hardly a whisper this year, may turn out to be the big difference Saturday against the Air Force—and the Air Force may have itself to blame.

The reason? A cartoon earlier this year in an Air Force publication depicted the Army foot soldier as a bedraggled figure in comparison with the sleek space cadet in the Air Force of the future.

Anderson, whose brother is an Air Force jet pilot in Germany, saw the cartoon and fired a salvo at the Air Force football team.

"We're going to clean their clocks," he said. "They made us mad and we want to beat them almost more than we want to beat Navy."

Anderson is the lad that could do it. As a soph in 1957, he was a ssnsation. Last year, playing alongside All America Pete Dawkins, he helped the Cadets to an 8-0-1 record and the Lambert Trophy. Everyone figured this was his year.

But in the second game, against Illinois, he severely injured a knee cartilage early in the game, which Army lost 20-14. He missed the Penn State game, also lost by Army 17-11.

Coach Dale Hall sees Anderson in a two-pronged role against the Air Force. Since his running is hampered by his inability to cut and slant sharply, he has proved his worth as a passer on the pass-run option play.

Last week he completed four, and has five of eight for the season for 64 yards.

The argument continues Saturday before 72,000 in New York's Yankee Stadium.

Rangers Get Tie With Wings, 3-3

NEW YORK (AP)—Coach Sid Abel of the Detroit Red Wings, the surprise team of the National Hockey League, still is sitting on Cloudy Nine today. But he's not shooting for the moon.

"I'll settle for a playoff spot right now," he said. This despite the fact that his Red Wings are in second place, trailing the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens by four points. The Wings also have played three less games than the defending champions.

"After finishing in the cellar last season we just had to make some changes," Abel said, "and it looks as though they have paid off. Montreal is still the class of this league, but we'll call it a successful year if we finish among the first four."

Despite their 5-1-2 record, the Wings' may be headed for trouble. They stumbled a bit Wednesday night, dissipating a 3-0 lead to the New York Rangers who rallied to gain a 3-3 tie in Madison Square Garden.

Worse than that, Terry Sawchuk, the Wings' star goalie, aggravated a leg injury received in Sunday's game against the Canadiens. Sawchuk has been an early season sensation, permitting only 10 goals in eight games.

In last night's other NHL game, the Canadiens extended their unbeaten streak to six by playing a 1-1 tie with Toronto. Maurice Richard scored for Montreal in the first period and Dickie Duff evened matters for the Leafs in the third.

Kremenko Heads Baseball Writers

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America will hold its annual dinner Sunday, Jan. 31, 1960.

The membership re-elected Barney Kremenko, Journal American, president; Dick Young, News, vice-president; and Sid Gray, Herald-Tribune, secretary-treasurer.

Joe Reichler, Associated Press, was named to the board of directors, joining Dan Daniel, World-Telegram and Sun; Ken Smith, Mirror, and Joe Trimble, News.

Football Briefs

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Dave Applehof, center for the unbeaten Orange football squad, will be co-captain with permanent captain Ger Schwedes Saturday, when Syracuse meets Pitt.

Applehof, of Berea, Ohio, was picked Wednesday as Syracuse went through another long drill on pass defense.

Syracuse leads the nation in defense for the fifth consecutive week, according to figures released yesterday by the NCAA.

Right for Other GI Loan Is Not Restored by Sale

A veteran's eligibility for a GI loan is not restored automatically when he sells his GI-purchased home and obtains a VA release from liability to the government on the loan.

This was stressed today by two officials of the Veterans Administration, George M. Vadas, manager of the Regional Office, Watervliet Arsenal, and F. William Sheehan, officer-in-charge of the five-county VA office in the central post office here.

Release of the veteran from liability to the government does not affect VA's guaranty on the loan. As long as the guaranty is outstanding, no restoration of GI loan rights can be extended to the veteran Sheehan said.

Even if the loan is paid in full, thus relieving VA of liability to the lender, a veteran's entitlement to another GI loan may be restored only when the property:

1. Was taken by a governmental agency for public use.
2. Was destroyed by natural hazard; or,
3. Was disposed of for compelling reasons such as health, employment transfer, change to a better job in another city, or other reasons considered sufficent by the VA.

In such cases, veterans should apply at the Veterans Administration Office, Main Post Office, Kingston, New York for restoration of entitlement.

Construction Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—New York City's building construction this year will total more than a billion dollars, according to Peter J. Reidy, buildings commissioner. In 1958, building construction totaled 982 million dollars.

Registrations Of Suburbans Show Increase

ALBANY—As of the end of August, the report of the registration and licensing section of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles shows that the number of suburbans, buses, ambulances and motorcycles has already exceeded the figures for the entire year of 1958 while other categories are showing a gain over the comparable eight months of last year, Commissioner William S. Hults reported today.

Latest registration figures for the state show 3,887,953 passengers cars; 19,959 buses; 26,449 taxicabs; 472,417 trucks; 155,043 trailers; 1,186 ambulances; 392,754 suburbans; 16,466 motorcycles; and 10,802 farm vehicles.

Last year's complete total for suburbans was 360,491; for buses 19,910; for ambulances 1,162 and motorcycles 16, 336.

The overall percentage gain for the first eight months this year is 2.7 per cent.

Revenue also is up over 1958's first eight months, $117,234,277.89 against $116,326,456.04, a gain of $907,812.85.

Would Be Clerk

James Hicks, who was recently relieved of his duties as dog warden in the Town of Rosendale after a controversy over delinquent dog owners, has been touring the township with a truck displaying a large sign which reads "Don't Go to the Dogs. Vote for a New Clerk. James Hicks, the fired dog warden."

North Dutchess to Have Full Facilities at Health Center

RHINEBECK—There will be no halfway or "temporary" solution to the problems besetting the Northern Dutchess Health Center when the construction program now under way at the hospital is completed.

Several years ago, to help relieve a major problem of overcrowding, eight patients' beds were set up "temporarily" on sun porches designed primarily for 'walking' or wheel chair patient. Not only is this area still devoted to patient beds, but extra beds have been placed in rooms designed for other purposes, and even in the halls.

Must Be Complete

Originally the Hospital Board felt that not everything could be accomplished at once and approved limited plans wherein the third floor of the new south wing would be left as a shell. However, both federal and state agencies advised that no public funds could be used toward the cost of construction not fully completed for immediate use, and further, that such funds were not available for interior work on existing structures in any program of which a part would not be put to immediate use.

Benson R. Frost Sr., honorary president of the board, and S. Richard Lloyd, building committee chairman, in a joint statement, said "In view of this, and strongly encouraged by the New York State Joint Hospital Survey and Planning Commission and the Division of Hospitals of the United States Public Health Service, it was decided to move the operating suite and delivery suite, with central sterile supply and recovery room, to the third floor of the new wing, and the addition to that wing. This necessitated the relocation of the maternity department at the north end of the presently existing north wing, and the addition to that wing of an extension providing eight new maternity beds."

Essential Change Made

"The construction of a complete new elevator, and the addition of air-conditioning in the new construction work, were felt to be such an essential part of the expansion and modernization program, that they could not be omitte or delayed."

"All of these changes, although increasing costs by nearly $235,000, have resulted in additional state and federal aid to the extent of approximately $80,000.

Hope for Support

"To build a greater hospital will cost $773,435. The federal grant totaling $256,654 will provide much of the money," Mr. Frost said. "There is reason to hope", he continued, "that additional support from the public, in view of the project's enhanced values and importance, will provide much of the additional money still needed and thus avoid entirely the necessity for mortgaging our hospital, or diminish the amount to be secured by such a method."

Meanwhile, the steam shovels have been at work on the hospital grounds, and foundations are about to be poured.

Realtors to Hear State President In Talk Tonight

Joseph H. Murphy of Albany, president of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards, Inc., will be the speaker tonight at the annual dinner and installation meeting of the Ulster County Board of Realtors. The meeting will be held at Governor Clinton Hotel at 7 o'clock with a party from 6 o'clock preceding the dinner meeting.

During the early program and at the dinner Dorothy Darrow will present a program of piano selections.

Wants a New Name

MILWAUKEE (AP) — People have so much trouble pronouncing George Gaieck's name he doesn't even know he is being paged. That was the reason Gaieck gave in petitioning Circuit Court to change his name to Nolan.

Protein Consumption

Americans consume more than 600 pounds of protein foods of animal origin, such as meat, milk, eggs and cheese, per capita each year.

$5,000 Award Is Made on Assault

Charles Hoyt, New Jersey, was awarded $5,000 in Supreme Court Wednesday in an action for assault brought against Peter J. Dwyer, Kingston. Plaintiff alleged he had suffered injuries in an assault which he alleged took place while he was acting as a campus policeman at Seaton Hall where Dwyer was a student. McCabe and McCabe appeared for plaintiff and John L. Larkin and Francis Vogt appeared for defendant.

This was the last case to be tried before Justice Donald S. Taylor at the October term of Supreme Court. Jurors were dismissed for the term.

The court was recessed until Friday when at 10 a. m. a Town of Shandaken election case will be heard by Justice Taylor. At that time a show cause order is returnable under which the court will be asked to strike the names of 75 applicants for absentee ballots in the Town of Shandaken from the register.

Whitney Show Opens

NEW YORK (AP)—The Whitney Museum of American Art Wednesday opened its exhibition of art that had been shown in Moscow last summer at the Soviet fair.
